GLEN MASON

- Led Minnesota to five bowl games in the last six years and has won three consecutive bowl games. He is the only coach in school history to take Minnesota to five bowl games during his tenure.
- Earned a third consecutive bowl championship against Alabama with a 20-16 victory in the 2004 Music City Bowl, becoming one of only eight teams to win three bowls the past three seasons.
- His 43 wins over the last six seasons (1999-2004) represent the best six-year win total at the University of Minnesota since 1903-08. In 2003, Mason led the Gophers to their first 10-win season since 1905.
- Has built a new level of offensive consistency as the Gophers have currently recorded 27 consecutive games with at least 300 yards of total offense. Minnesota also joins Boise State as the only teams to finish in the top 35 nationally in total offense each of the past six seasons.

NCAA Division I Victories by Active Big Ten Coaches

Choosing the 'U'

Our 2004 season finished strong with a Bowl victory over tradition-rich Alabama. Minnesota has won three straight Bowl games against BCS opponents (2002 vs. Arkansas; 2003 vs. Oregon; 2004 vs. Alabama).Your Golden Gophers also currently own the nation's longest streak of non-conference wins, including Bowl wins, at 16.

Along with our accomplishments on the field, we have enjoyed off-the-field success in the classroom and in the community. The 'U' is the only Division I football program in this great State of Minnesota. As part of our player development, we give back to our loyal supporters through strong graduation rates, community service and "play hard" competitive football.

The U is an outstanding University which is consistently ranked as a Top Three Public University. Minnesota offers 145 academic majors or the opportunity to design your own. The faculty ranks among the Top Ten public institutions in the nation.

The University of Minnesota is located in a city ranked highly by many different outlets:

- "Most Fun City" in America by Money Magazine's "Best Places to Live" expert Bert Sperling
- Cleanest City in the country according to Travel & Leisure
- Most Literate City by a University of Wisconsin-Whitewater study
- Second Healthiest City in the country by ASH anti-smoking magazine
- Third-Best City for Families according to Child Magazine

The University of Minnesota offers strong academic success, a football program on the rise and a city to call home. The 'U' just might be the place for YOU!

Go Gophers!

THE MASON ERA

Building A Winning Tradition

3 STRAIGHT BOWL WINS OVER BCS PROGRAMS

▼ Mason led Minnesota to the 1999 Sun Bowl, its first bowl game in 13 years and began a string of five bowls in the last six years

WINNING

- Gophers won 10 games in 2003, the most victories at Minnesota since 1905.
- Gophers won 43 games over the past six seasons which is the most during a six-year period at Minnesota since 1903-08.
- With 110 career victories, Mason has the second-most Division I wins among active Big Ten coaches behind Joe Paterno.

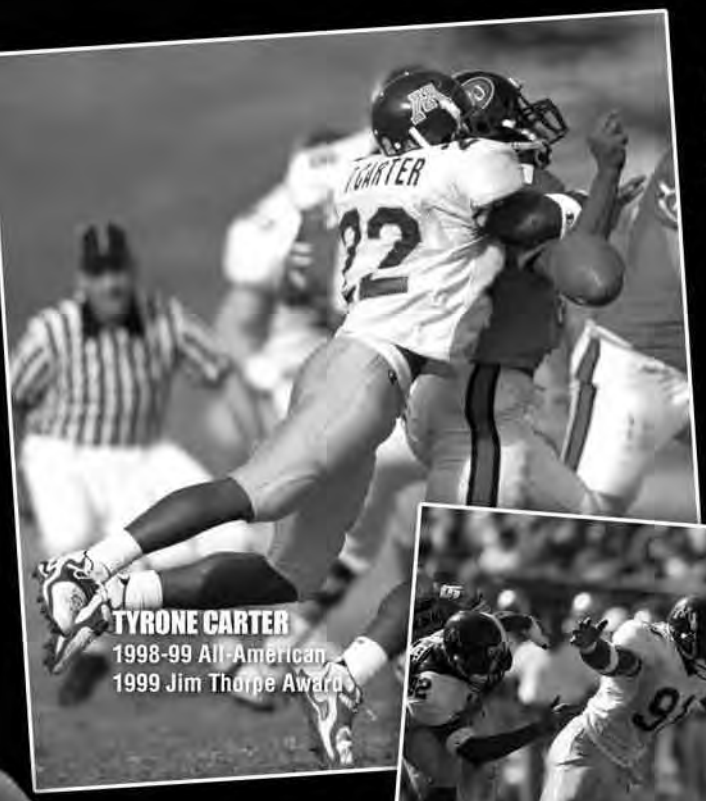

BOWL GAMES

2004 Music City, 2003 Sun & 2002 Music City Champions

- Mason has led his team to an unprecedented five bowl games in the past six seasons, including a 20-16 victory over Alabama in the 2004 Music City Bowl.
- With bowl victories in 2002, 2003 and 2004, the Gophers are one of only eight teams to win bowl games the past three seasons and they join Ohio State as the only other Big Ten team to accomplish that feat.
- Mason led the Gophers to more bowl games than any other coach in school history and is the only coach in school history to lead the Gophers to three consecutive bowl victories.

ACCOLADES

- Mason has coached eight All-Americans in his eight-year tenure
- Gophers had five First Team All-Big Ten selections in 2004, the most at Minnesota since 1941

BLUE-COLLAR DEFENSE

- The Gopher defense recorded the only shutout in Big Ten Conference action last season and the school's first Big Ten shutout since 1990 with a 45-0 win over Illinois.
- Between 2002-04, the Gopher defense didn't allow a 100-yard rusher in 15 straight games.

BARBER & MARONEY
Minnesota became the first school in NCAA history to have two players each rush for more than 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons (Marion Barber III & Laurence Maroney, 2003-04)

PROLIFIC OFFENSE

- Only school in the nation to both run and pass for 2,000 yards in each of the past six seasons.
- Led the Big Ten in rushing yardage in 2003 and 2004.
- Gophers have accumulated 300 yards of total offense in 27 straight games, the longest current streak in the Big Ten.
- Mason coached one of the most prolific offenses in Big Ten history in 2003 as the Gophers set a Big Ten record in total offense (6,430) and finished with the fourth-highest rushing total (3,759) and sixth-highest point total (503) in Big Ten history.

LAURENCE MARONEY
Led the Gophers to Bowl victories over Oregon in the 2003 Sun Bowl and over Alabama in the 2004 Music City Bowl

Minnesota Football is steeped in tradition over its 123-year history. From its first Big Ten title in 1900, accomplishments such as six national titles, including five in eight years (1934-41), to recent bowl game trips, the Golden Gopher program has instilled a great sense of pride in its fans, alumni and followers.

Golden Gopher Football also enjoys some unique traditions, such as competing for four rivalry trophies. The Minnesota-Wisconsin rivalry is one of the most prestigious and anticipated series in the history of athletics. It's the most played rivalry in college football history at 114 contests and the annual winner takes home Paul Bunyan's Axe. Some of Minnesota's other Big Ten rivalries are also among the top in college football. Minnesota faces Michigan for the Little Brown Jug, for the 102nd time this season. The two foes began playing for the Jug in 1903. Border rivals Minnesota and Iowa have competed annually for the Floyd of Rosedale trophy since 1935, while Penn State and the Golden Gophers compete for the Governor's Victory Bell. Minnesota was Penn State's inaugural Big Ten game in 1993.

FOOTBALL

Every collegiate program in the nation knows that success begins on the practice field and in the classroom. The University of Minnesota is committed to that success, and it shows in the facilities that it provides for its student-athletes. The Gibson-Nagurski Football Complex is one of the finest in the country, providing players with two and one-half full-sized AstroPlay® practice fields, both indoor and outdoor. AstroPlay® is the latest in artificial turf technology. It is a long-blade artificial grass that looks and plays like natural grass, but holds up like artificial turf. Minnesota was the first major program in the country to go exclusively with AstroPlay® as a practice surface. Along with the state-of-the-art fields, Minnesota offers a 12,000-square foot, multi-level weight room - one of the largest in the nation, a spacious locker room, an equipment room, a training room, a full steam room and sauna, and private meeting rooms for every position on the team. When practice is over, the players can kick back and relax or study in their comfortable and accommodating lounge, equipped with two large-screen televisions, a pool table,an attached kitchen and plenty of furniture. It offers all the amenities of home and then some. For those more interested in history and tradition, the entrance of the complex is adorned with trophies, plaques and statues that all preach the Golden Gophers' past success and their drive for future fruition.

IN THE PROS

Minnesota Football has been a pipeline to the National Football League for years. More than 230 Golden Gophers have been drafted by an NFL franchise since 1936. Five Golden Gophers have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, including 2004 inductee Carl Eller. Between 2001 and 2002, Minnesota had seven draftees, the most in a two-year span since 1990-91. In 2001, the Golden Gophers had four players selected in the NFL Draft, led by Willie Middlebrooks, a first round pick of the Denver Broncos. Three more Gophers were taken in the 2002 draft. Recently, Michael Lehan was drafted by Cleveland in the 2003 NFL Draft while Thomas Tapeh was selected by the Philadelphia Eagles in 2004. Marion Barber III was chosen by the Dallas Cowboys in 2005.

GOPHER GAME DAY

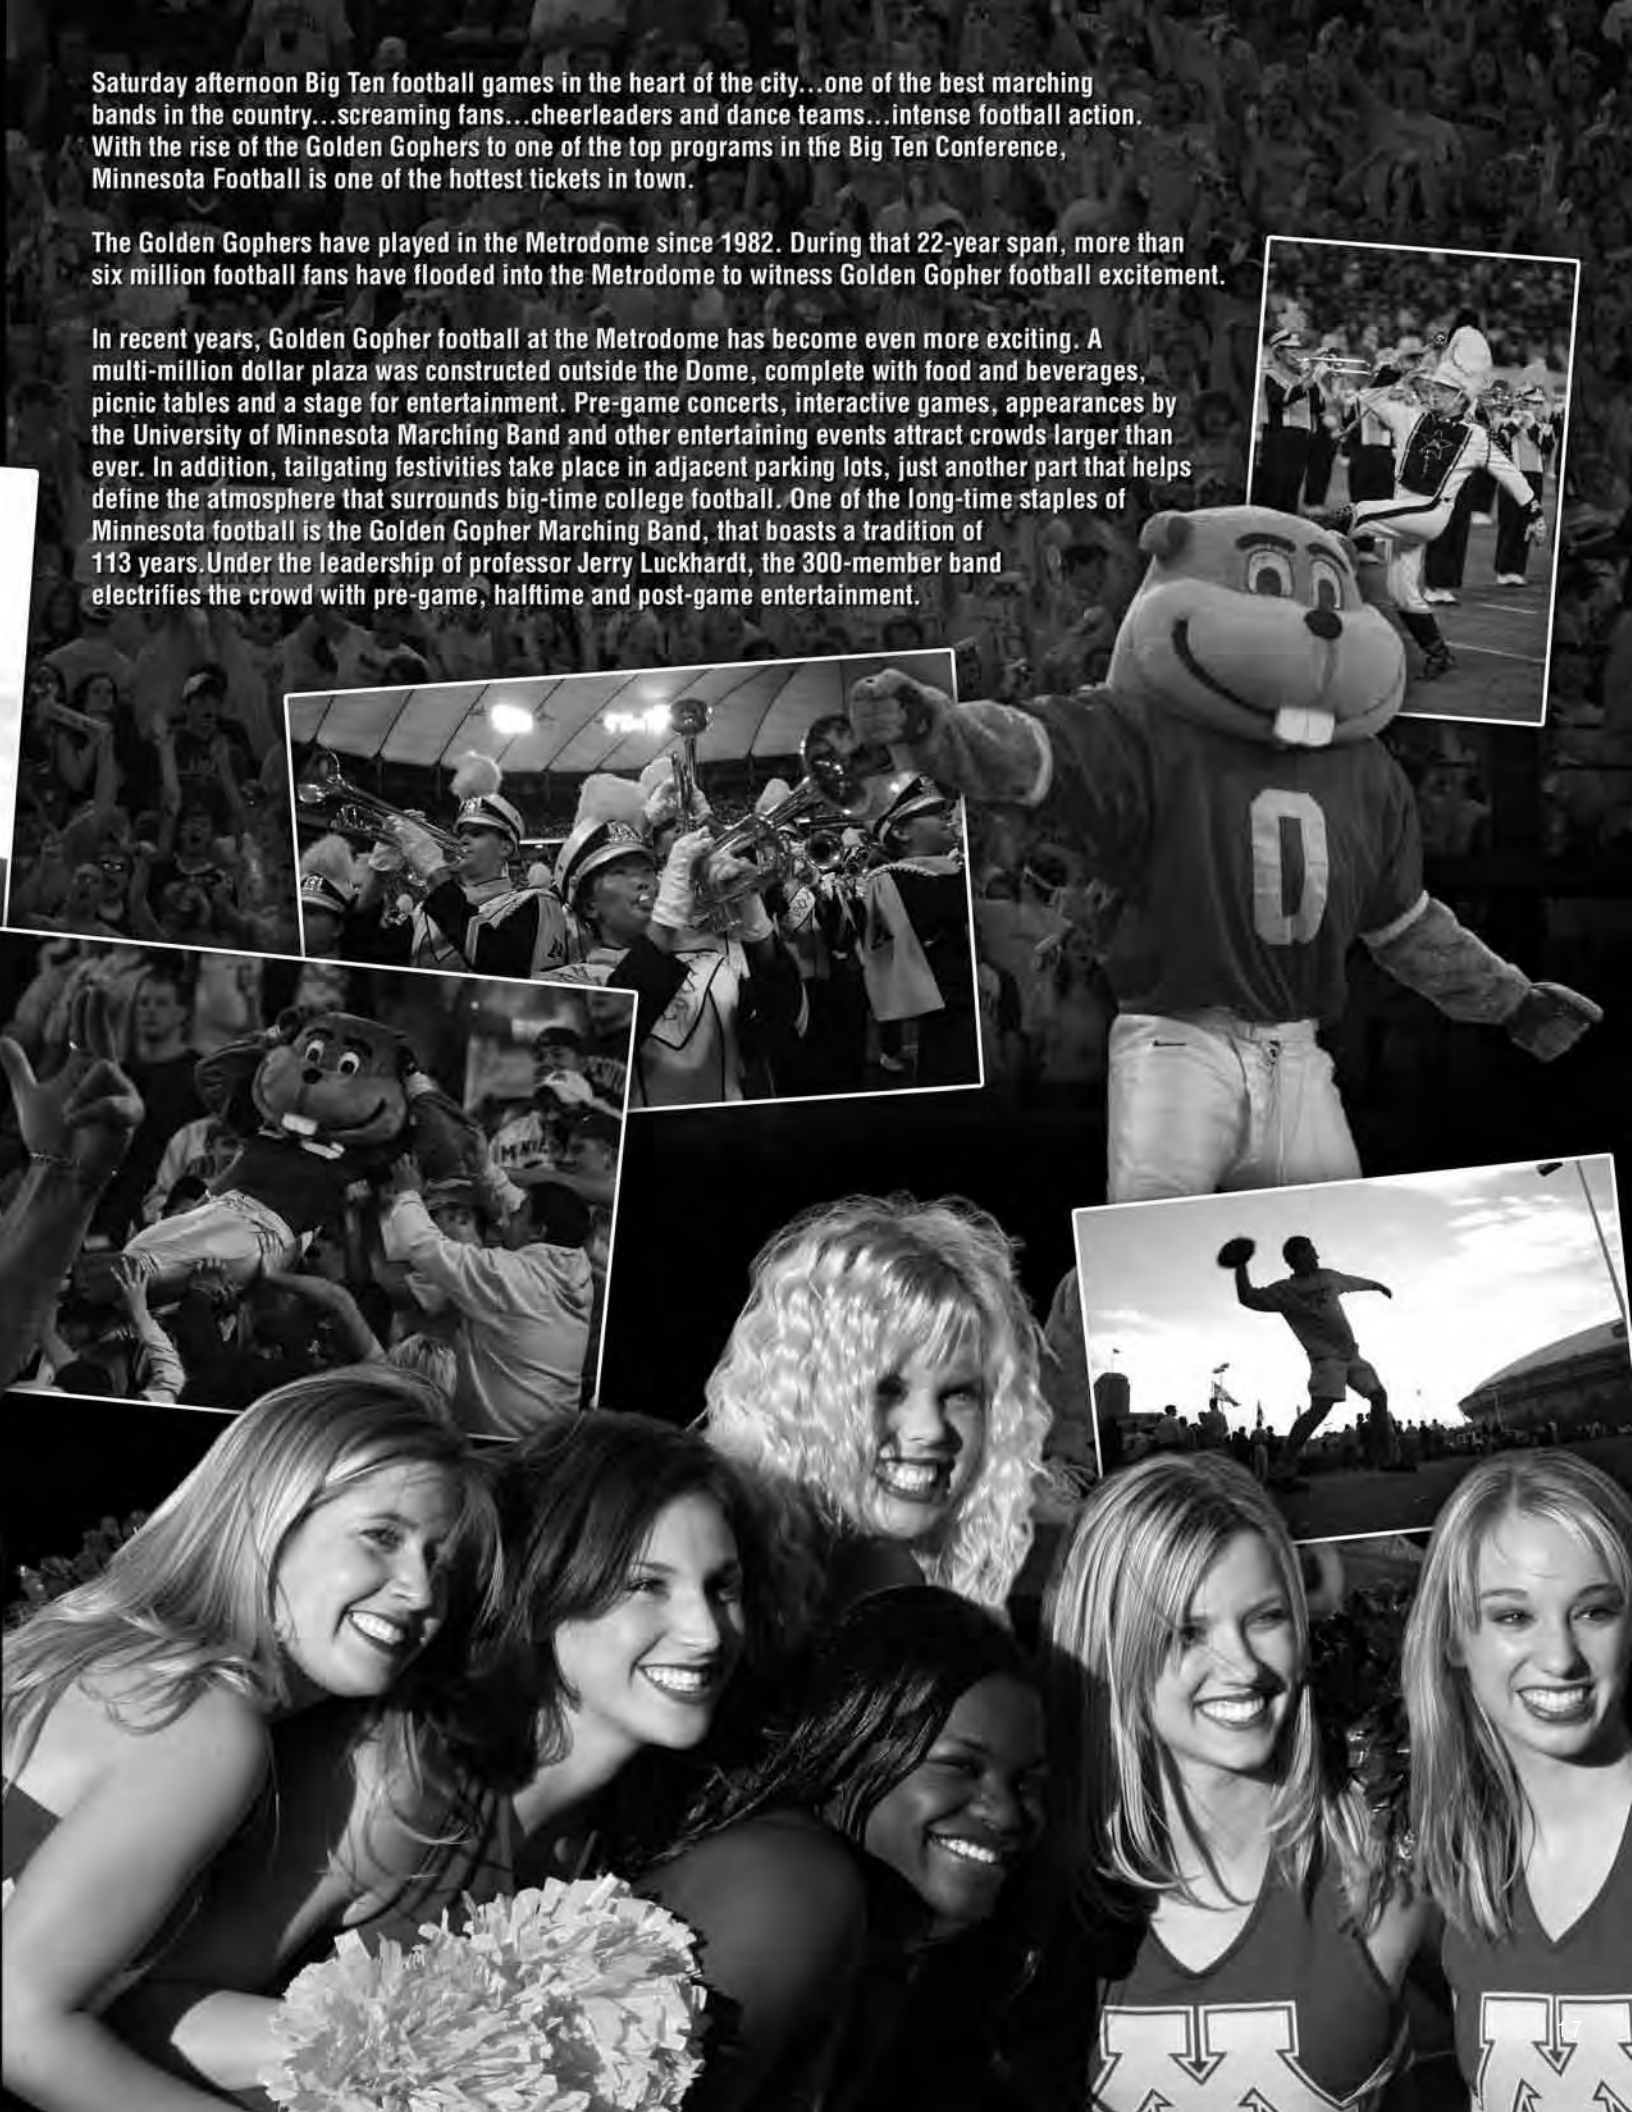

BIG TEN FOOTBALL

Saturday afternoon Big Ten football games in the heart of the city…one of the best marching bands in the country…screaming fans…cheerleaders and dance teams…intense football action. With the rise of the Golden Gophers to one of the top programs in the Big Ten Conference, Minnesota Football is one of the hottest tickets in town.

The Golden Gophers have played in the Metrodome since 1982. During that 22-year span, more than six million football fans have flooded into the Metrodome to witness Golden Gopher football excitement.

In recent years, Golden Gopher football at the Metrodome has become even more exciting. A multi-million dollar plaza was constructed outside the Dome, complete with food and beverages, picnic tables and a stage for entertainment. Pre-game concerts, interactive games, appearances by the University of Minnesota Marching Band and other entertaining events attract crowds larger than ever. In addition, tailgating festivities take place in adjacent parking lots, just another part that helps define the atmosphere that surrounds big-time college football. One of the long-time staples of Minnesota football is the Golden Gopher Marching Band, that boasts a tradition of 113 years. Under the leadership of professor Jerry Luckhardt, the 300-member band electrifies the crowd with pre-game, halftime and post-game entertainment.

TCF BANK STADIUM

Bringing Gopher Football Back to Campus: 2008 Season

The University of Minnesota is bringing Gopher Football back to campus. This stadium will be an important, symbolic center of campus life. It will be a place for students to gather with family, faculty, alumni, and friends for all-University events, enhancing the campus life experience in a way that cannot be replicated. The University of Minnesota is a valuable asset to the state, and a new campus stadium will bring pride to our citizens for generations to come.

The recent announcement of TCF Bank's $35 million commitment to this stadium has energized the campaign by giving it a sense of reality and urgency. The Gophers have played football in Minnesota for 120 years and will continue to play here for 120 more. TCF Bank Stadium will be the new home for Gopher Football, a place for the campus community and Minnesotans to celebrate together.

Momentum is growing and work is beginning. Money is being raised to finance the $235 million stadium through individual giving and corporate sponsorships. Environmental work has begun that is necessary to keep us on track for a 2008 kick-off. Action in the legislature is encouraging. We are on our way to bringing Gopher Football back to campus.

TCF Bank Stadium will be an outdoor, collegiate-style stadium, offering architecture and style similar to what is already seen on campus. This classic 50,000 seat facility will show a red brick façade to blend with the collegiate landscape while offering a synthetic turf grass that has proven durable and safe. In addition to mixing a nostalgic look with modern technology, the stadium will offer:

- 39 suites
- 1,250 outdoor club seats
- 300 indoor club seats
- 30,000 square foot Club Room
- Two exterior hospitality plazas
- A Golden Gopher Hall of Fame
- State of the art signage and electronic display boards
- Expandable to an 80,000 seat capacity
- In addition to serving as a home for our football team, the facility will enable the campus to host concerts, other major sporting events, graduation and convocation ceremonies and other entertainment

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

The responsibilities surrounding Division I student-athletes go beyond the competition on the playing field and the academics in the classroom. Student-athletes are role models within a community, providing leadership by example for thousands of young kids wanting to become Golden Gophers. At the University of Minnesota, student-athlete development provides "Life Skills" by teaching student-athletes' the responsibilities of being role models in the community. The student development programs are broken down into two key components: personal development and career planning.

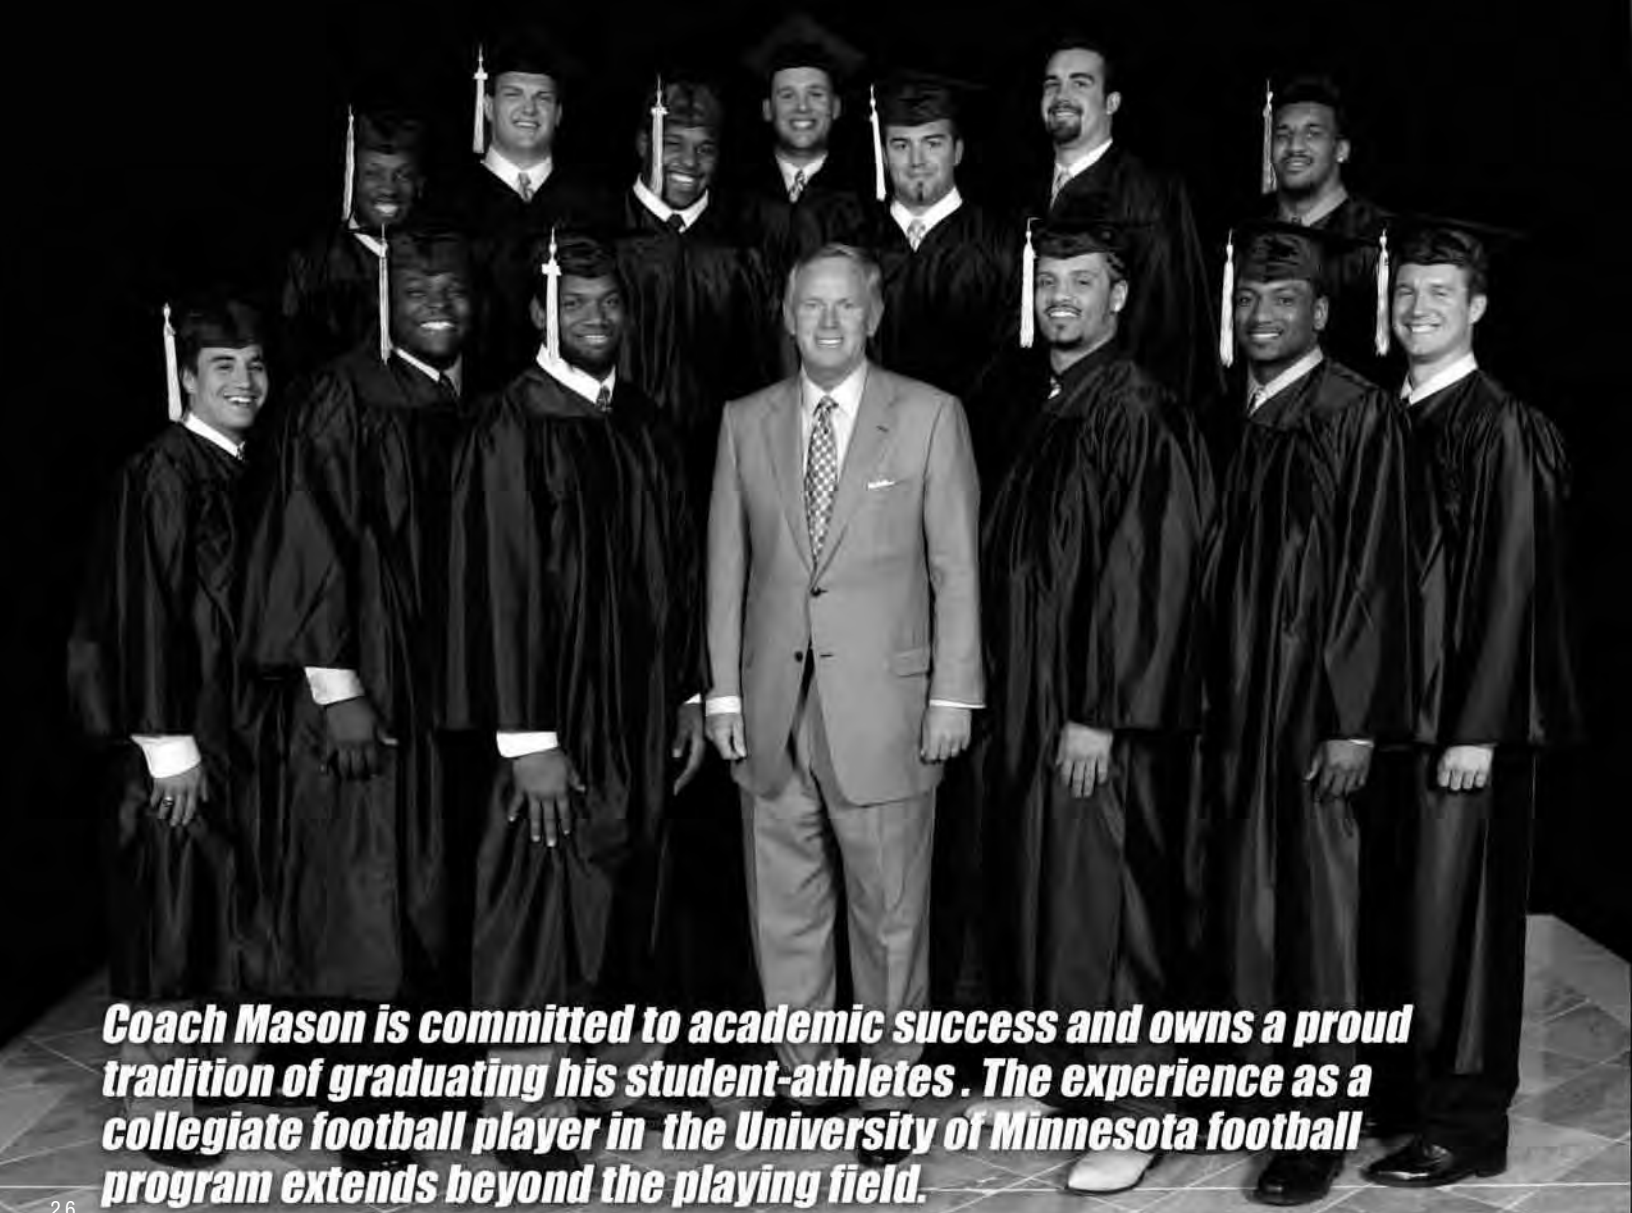

ACADEMICS

- America's Best Colleges, published by U.S. News & World Report, named the University of Minnesota among the top 25 public national universities for 2005.
- The University features 145 academic majors, OR design your own.
- University of Minnesota is ranked among the Top Three public research universities in the nation.
- University of Minnesota's faculty ranks among the Top Ten public institutions in the nation.
- Gourman's Rating of Undergraduate Programs at the University of Minnesota ranked #14 nationally.
- 35 Gopher football student-athletes maintained a 3.0 grade point average or better during the 2004-05 academic year.

Coach Mason is committed to academic success and owns a proud tradition of graduating his student-athletes . The experience as a collegiate football player in the University of Minnesota football program extends beyond the playing field.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

TRAINING PHILOSOPHY

The overall mission of the Gopher Strength and Conditioning staff is to improve athletic performance and reduce the risk of injury by providing safe effective training programs and facilities.

POWER

All programs including weight training, plyometrics, medicine ball training and ground based triple extension exercises are designed to improve each athletes overall functional strength and power.

AGILITY

Gopher Strength and Conditioning utilizes several different types of agility and quickness drills to improve an athlete's ability to change direction.

SPEED

Each athlete's overall speed is increased through teaching proper running mechanics as well as strength training, power development and improving core strength.

FLEXIBILITY

Gopher Strength and Conditioning pays close attention to one of the most overlooked aspects of improving athletic performance. Several types of routines including dynamic, static and hurdle mobility are use to increase flexibility.

NUTRITION

Nutrition plays a major role in the development of athletic performance. Each athlete is provided professional guidance on nutrition as well as dietary supplementation.

FOOTBALL

HOMEGROWN IN MINNESOTA

MATT ANDERLE

Roseville, Minn. • 2002 NFL Draft Pick, San Diego Chargers

"I came to Minnesota because it had everything I wanted in a school and I knew we could win football games. And we did. I grew up in Minnesota and there is no place I'd rather play for and win for than Minnesota.Why leave when I can do everything I want here and do it in front of the people I love!"

BEN UTECHT

Hastings, Minn. • TE, Indianapolis Colts

"Playing for Minnesota has filled me with the comfort and privilege of playing in front of my family. It is also an honor playing for coaches who encourage you to be successful both in life and in football. Finally, football is all about heart. Your heart is a muscle that inspires and motivates you towards greatness."

DARRELL THOMPSON

Rochester, Minn. • former NFL running back

"The decision to stay at home, attend Minnesota and play football for the Golden Gophers provided me with a number of opportunities, both academically and athletically. It's a great environment, and I truly enjoyed my college experience. After graduation, the Twin Cities area is a wonderful place to live with lots of job opportunities. That's why so many former Golden Gophers decide to make this their home when their college football days are over."

The 2005 Golden Gopher roster features 44 homegrown Minnesotans. Since arriving in December of 1996, Head Coach Glen Mason has put a premium on keeping Minnesota kids at home. In his first eight recruiting classes at Minnesota, more than 30 percent of the players who have signed with the Golden Gophers have been from the state. Minnesota student-athletes have been the building block of Golden Gopher Football. From Rochester's Darrell Thompson — the school's all-time leading rusher — to Hutchinson's Cory Sauter — the school's all-time passing leader — the state of Minnesota has produced many great current and former Golden Gophers.

MICHAEL LEHAN

Hopkins, Minn. • DB, Cleveland Browns

"Being on the football team has opened doors to volunteer opportunities that I enjoy immensely, proving that there's more to University of Minnesota student-athletes than athletics alone. I was in Coach Mason's first recruiting class and I have no regrets on coming to the University of Minnesota. I enjoyed being a part of the turnaround the coaches and the team made during my career and I look forward to the future of Gopher football."

RIAN MELANDER

Shoreview, Minn. • OT, Minnesota Vikings

"Having the opportunity to play at the U and follow in the footsteps of my uncle (Jon Melander) meant a great deal to me and my family. Having a chance to be a part of the great success we had during my career and playing in four bowls is something I will never forget."

THOMAS TAPEH

St. Paul, Minn. • FB, Philadelphia Eagles

"I chose to stay close to home where my family is and because everything I need is here. Coach Mason and the program have made me a smarter player since arriving at the college level. I have gained a great amount of knowledge athletically that I never knew, and there still is more to learn. The University of Minnesota has broadened my horizons. Courses offer things I never knew I was interested in before. The academics have been great and I've had a fun time learning."

WALK-ON SUCCESS

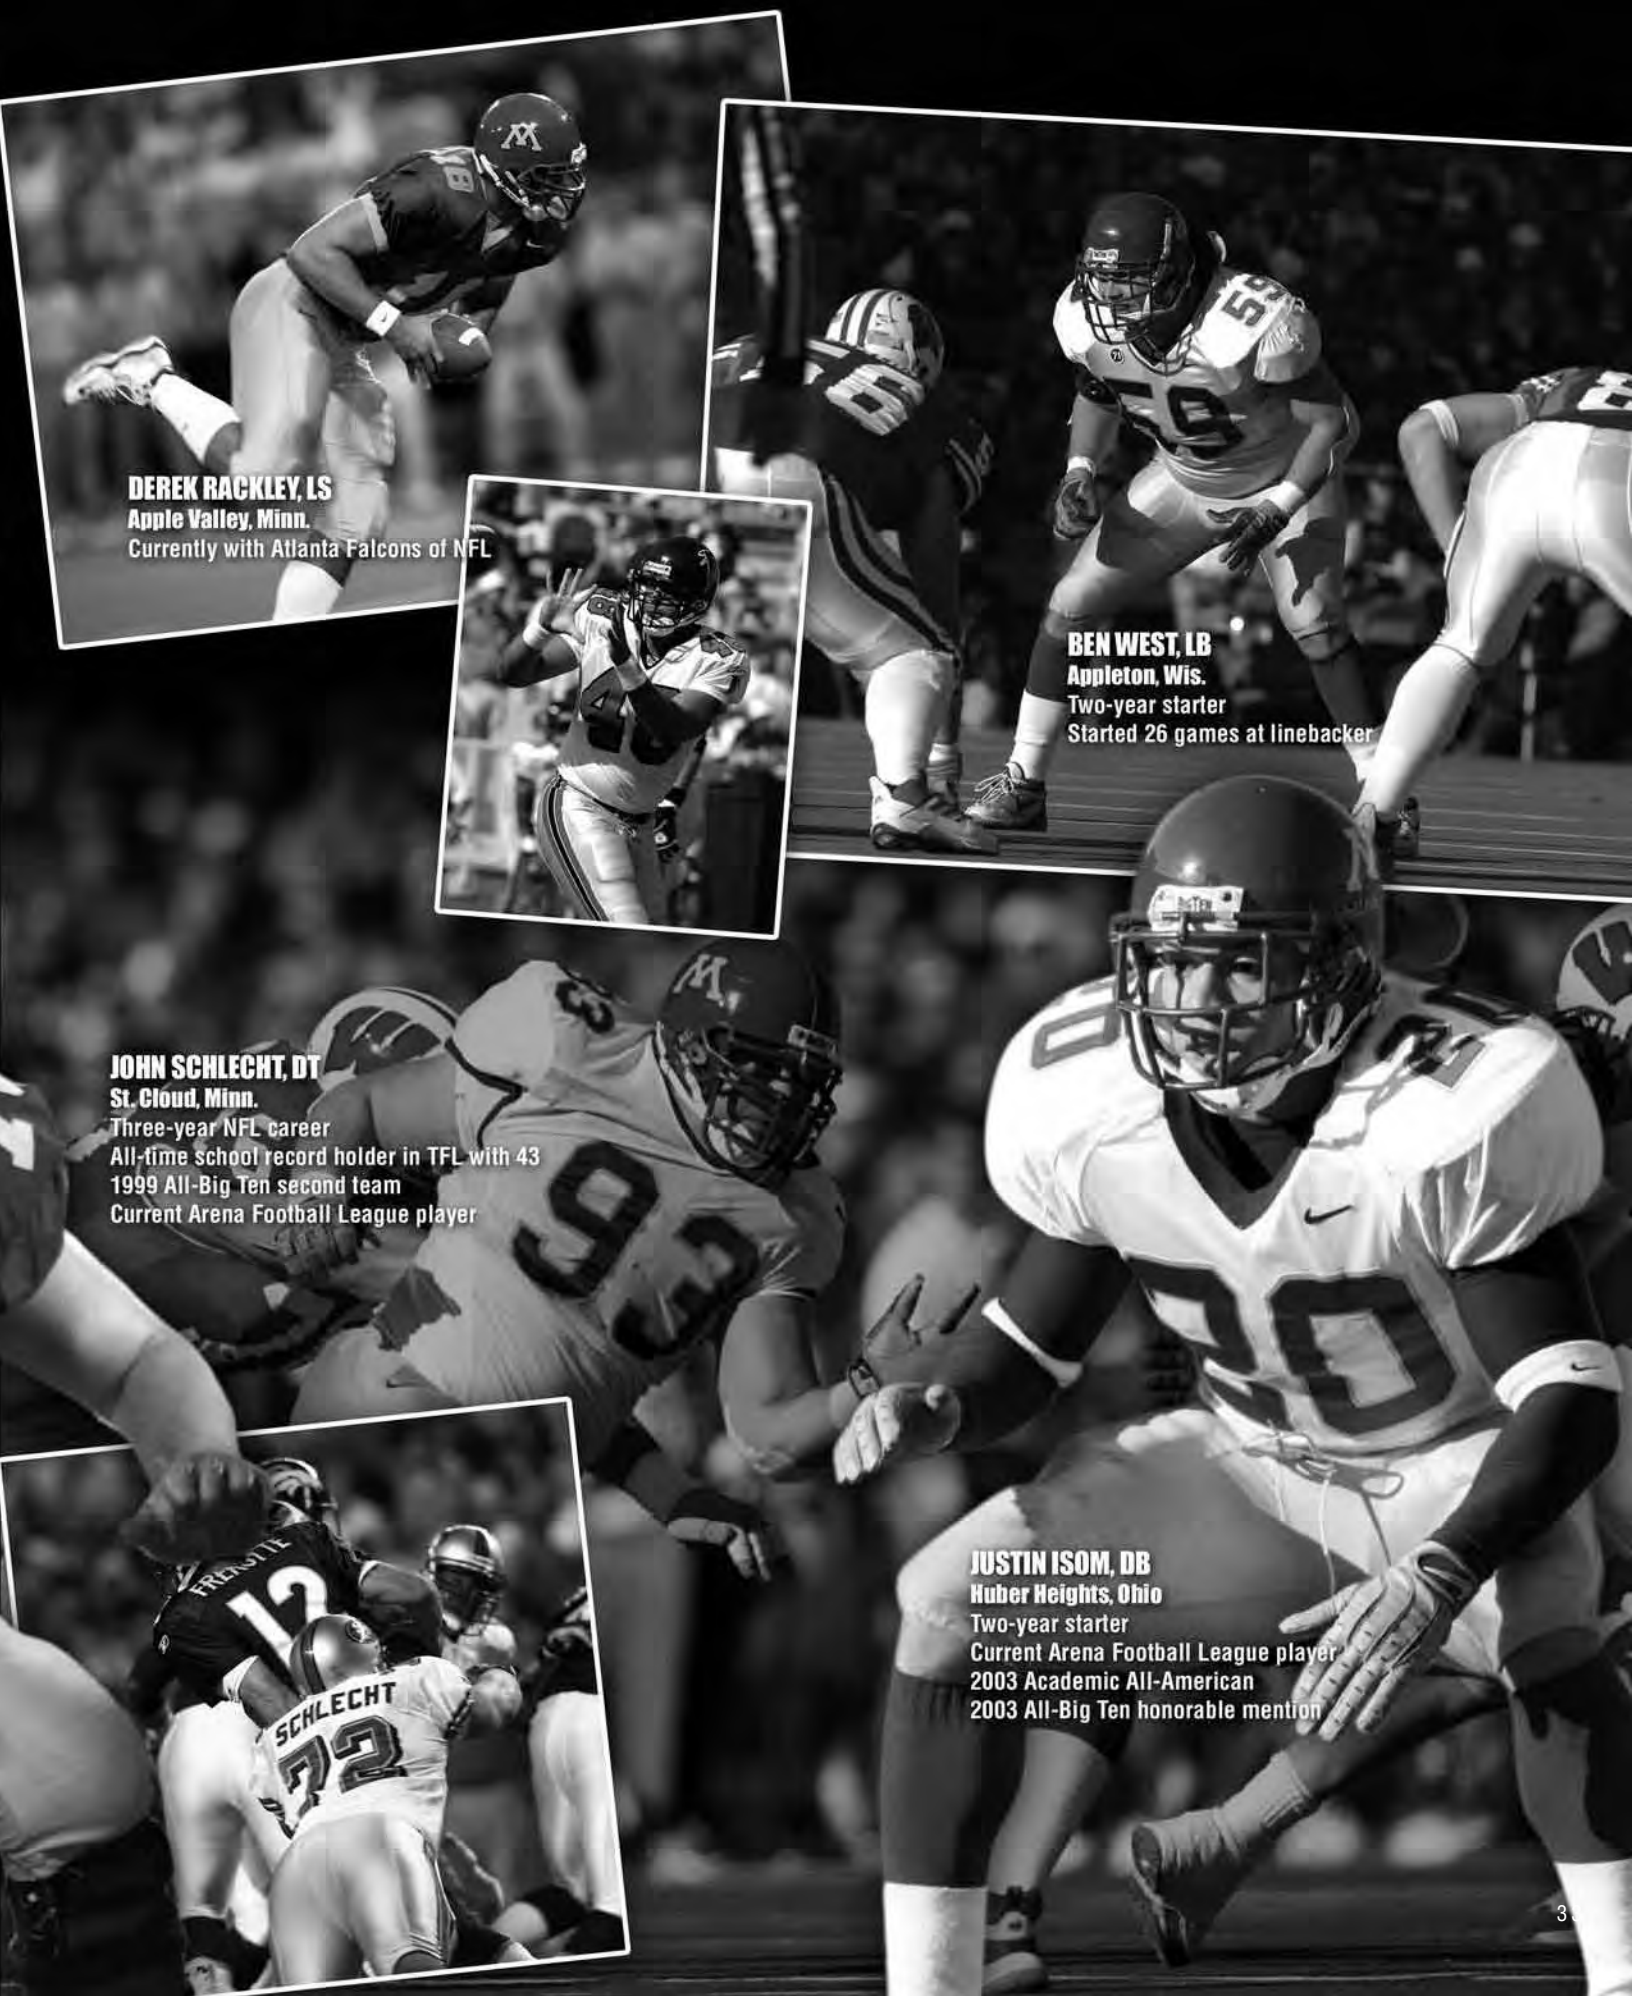

"Our walk-on program at the University of Minnesota has turned into a win-win proposition. We have had a number of student-athletes decide to come to Minnesota without the benefit of a scholarship. They have worked hard, received playing time, earned starting positions and even advanced all the way to the National Football League. Our walk-ons have been a very important part of our football program and will continue to be an integral part of our achievement in the future." – HEAD COACH GLEN MASON

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

ABOUT THE 'U'

- Founded in 1851, the University of Minnesota is one of the most comprehensive public universities in the United States and ranks among the most prestigious.It is both the state land-grant university and the state's primary research university.
- The University of Minnesota, Twin Cities campus is the largest of the four University of Minnesota campuses.
- The University of Minnesota has the second largest student population in the nation, with approximately 50,000 undergraduate and graduate students visiting campus on a daily basis.
- More than 150 bachelor's degrees, 200 master's degrees and 100 doctoral degrees are offered.
- More than 30 University programs rank among the top 10 nationally. The University's Twin Cities campus consistently ranks among the top three public research universities in the nation.

A world-class university — known globally as a leader in teaching, research and public service, the University of Minnesota,Twin Cities, consistently ranks among the top 20 public universities in the nation. More than 150 bachelor's degrees, 200 master's degrees and 100 doctoral degrees make the University one of the most comprehensive institutions in the country.Many of the programs are recognized as national and international leaders.

Also a thriving center for culture and the arts, The "U" features outstanding galleries, museums, concerts, theater productions and public lectures. Add in the excitement of Big Ten Athletics and the University of Minnesota has something for everyone The University community is a broad mix of ethnic backgrounds, interests and cultures. Students come from all 50 states and more than 100 foreign countries. Many small communities of students, faculty, and staff help to create a welcoming feeling on campus.

The campus in Minneapolis is located just a few minutes east of downtown. Nestled along the bluffs of the Mississippi River, buildings in Minneapolis range from the ultramodern Weisman Art Museum to the classic and stately Northrop Memorial Auditorium. A few miles to the east in St. Paul, rolling hills and quiet lawns create a more rural setting. The Minneapolis and St. Paul parts of the campus are connected by a convenient campus shuttle system.

The University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, also provides a life beyond the campus like few other Big Ten universities can. The dynamic communities of Minneapolis and St. Paul offer something for everyone—a nationally-recognized arts and theater community, a thriving entertainment industry, a host of Fortune 500 companies, four glorious seasons of outdoor recreation, exciting professional sports, shopping, and restaurants for every taste, all located close to campus.

Founded in 1851, seven years before the territory of Minnesota became a state, the University is the largest in the state and touches the lives of thousands of people every day through its various programs, organizations and associations.

COFFMAN MEMORIAL UNION

UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

One of the most comprehensive and prestig

Spanning over 2,000 acres filled with vibrant green grass, tall beautiful trees, both historic and modern architecture, the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities is uniquely divided among two thriving cities, Minneapolis and St. Paul. The "U," as it is known to locals, was first chartered in 1851 and just recently celebrated its sesquicentennial anniversary.

The heart of campus runs along the east bank of the Mississippi River in Minneapolis. The East Bank contains unique and historic buildings including Northrop Auditorium, home to musical concerts, theatrical performances, convocations and graduations. The eccentric Frederick R. Weisman Art Museum is located right along the east bank of the Mississippi River. The stainless steel building which was called one of the "five most gorgeous galleries on Earth" by New York Times architecture critic Herbert Muschamp, contains many celebrated art works from around the world. Pillsbury Hall, one of the oldest remaining buildings on campus named after former University Regent John S. Pillsbury, provides students, faculty and visitors with a memory of how the campus first appeared. Coffman Memorial Union, situated adjacent to the Weisman Art Museum, is home to many student organizations and was recently renovated to provide students with top-of-the-line services. Included in the renovation was a dining venue with 10 restaurant options, a game center, computer labs and a campus bookstore.

On the opposite side of the Mississippi River is the University's West Bank campus. Only a few blocks from downtown Minneapolis, the West Bank campus features many modernized buildings, including the Carlson School of Management building and the University's largest library, Wilson Library. Access to the West Bank campus can be obtained by traveling across the Washington Avenue Bridge, a double-decker bridge that accommodates motorists, pedestrians, bicyclists, and in-line skaters. The bridge also contains a sheltered area for the winter months.

The St. Paul campus provides a distinctly different atmosphere. This "small college" environment is only a short bus ride from the Minneapolis campus using the University shuttle. The Agriculture, Biological Sciences, and Human Ecology departments all are located on the St. Paul campus. For those who wish to enjoy all the amenities of a large research university, but live in a small town setting, the St. Paul campus delivers.

The University, 154 years old, has seen remarkable improvements and growth. From the first permanent university building, the Old Main built in 1858, to the many current construction projects, the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities campus offers students, faculty and visitors a one-of-a-kind learning environment.

GOLDEN GOPHERS BY STATE

JOE AINSLIE

78 Offensive Tackle
Sr./Jr. • 6-7 • 310

Minnetonka, Minn.
Hopkins High School

A phenomenal competitor and two-year starter who helps give the Gophers one of the most experienced offensive lines in the nation • an underrated lineman who doesn't have the accolades of senior linemates Greg Eslinger and Mark Setterstrom, but is a very consistent and durable performer • a player that never wants to come off the field and who can play through injury • the Gophers' tallest returning player at 6' 7".

CAREER NOTES: Has started 17 of the 25 games in which he has played over the past two seasons.

2004 • SOPHOMORE SEASON: Played in all 12 games, starting 11 at tackle • did not start at Michigan State (10/23) • helped the Gophers average 438.3 yards of total offense, which ranked third-best in the Big Ten, 15th in the nation and is the second-highest average in school history • Minnesota's 256.8 rushing yards per game led the Big Ten, ranked fifth nationally and represents the second-highest average in school history • part of an offensive line that allowed just nine sacks in 12 games, the second-best mark in the Big Ten and the fewest at Minnesota since 1970 • helped Minnesota average 6.3 yards per play, the second-highest average in school history, and 5.4 yards per rush, the school's second-best average all-time • part of an offense that averaged 30.1 points a game, the fourth-highest total in school history • key component of a Gopher team that scored 47 touchdowns, the second most in school history • helped the Gophers become the only school in the nation to both run and pass for at least 2,000 yards the past six seasons • part of a line that has accumulated 300 yards of total offense in a school-record 27 straight games heading into 2005 • his blocks aided tailbacks Marion Barber III and Laurence Maroney in becoming the first players in NCAA history to each rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons (2003 & 2004) • helped the offense establish a school-record sixth consecutive season with a 1,000-yard rusher by blocking for two 1,000-yard tailbacks in 2003 and 2004 • participated in 806 plays • earned second letter.

2003 • FRESHMAN SEASON: Played in all 13 games, making six starts at right tackle, including the final five contests • team was 5-1 and averaged 524.2 yards in his six starts • contributed to an offense that led the Big Ten in all of the following categories and finished third nationally in rush offense (289.2 ypg), fourth nationally in total offense (494.6 ypg), and seventh in the NCAA in scoring offense (38.7) • helped the team set eight single-season offensive records including total offense (6,430), rushing offense (3,759), rushing touchdowns (46), scoring (503 / 38.7 ppg), touchdowns (66), yards-per-play (6.6), 500-yard games (7) and 200-yard rushing games (11) • part of a line that yielded just 16 sacks in 13 games, which was the least in the Big Ten • made first career start at Northwestern (10/4) • participated in 597 plays • earned first letter.

2002: Redshirted • scholar-athlete award winner.

HIGH SCHOOL: A graduate of Hopkins High School (Minn.) • high school coach was Ken McDonald • all-state, all-area and all-city award winner in 2001 • listed as a top recruit in the state of Minnesota in Tom Lemming's Prep Football Report • earned two letters at both offensive and defensive tackle • also threw shot put for the track team • holds the school's best throw over 50 feet.

PERSONAL: Sociology major • son of Mike and Kate Ainslie • born February 1, 1984.

NEEL ALLEN

98 Defensive Tackle
Jr./So. • 6-3 • 295

Marietta, Ga.
Lassiter High School

Enters the 2005 season listed second on the depth chart behind Anthony Montgomery at right tackle • continued to improve his technique over the spring after getting a taste of Big Ten competition in 2004 • one of the Gophers' four Georgia natives, all of whom are defensive players.

2004 • FRESHMAN SEASON: Played in seven games, tallying two tackles • Game-by-Game: was in on a career-high 18 plays against Toledo (9/4) in the season opener • had a solo tackle against Toledo and at Michigan State (10/16) • participated in 51 plays.

2003: Redshirted • joined the team for spring practices prior to the 2003 season.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2002 graduate of Lassiter High School (Ga.) • high school coach was Jerry Mahon • tallied 131 tackles, including 96 solos during his senior season • registered eight sacks and two forced fumbles in 2001 • was an all-conference and all-county selection three times from 1999-2001 • lettered in football three times • three-year letterwinner in wrestling as a heavyweight • all-state wrestler in 2001 and 2002 • 2001 member of "Who's Who of High School Students."

PERSONAL: History major • son of Myra West-Allen and DeWayne Allen • born July 2, 1984.

TRUMAINE BANKS

4 Cornerback
Sr./Jr. • 5-11 • 185

Columbus, Ohio
Eastmoor Academy

Two-year starter who coaches are depending on to provide leadership in 2005 • has good ball skills and is the most aggressive cornerback on the team • his experience and repetitions against the Big Ten's elite receivers should allow him to reach a new level this season as he aims to make a name for himself as one of the Big Ten's top cornerbacks.

COACHING STAFF

head coach • ninth season

Led Gophers to five bowls in last six years

Glen Mason has a national reputation for transforming struggling programs into winning organizations. Now entering his ninth year as Minnesota's head coach and his 20th as a Division I head coach, Mason has changed a struggling program that hadn't posted a winning season since 1990 into one of the top programs in the Big Ten. Under Mason, the Gophers have won three consecutive bowl games and have made bowl appearances in five of the past six seasons, both of which are unprecedented in Minnesota history. Mason is also second among current Big Ten coaches in career Division I victories with 110, trailing only Joe Paterno of Penn State. Mason earned his 100th career victory in 2003 with a 36-10 win over Illinois.

With his success at Kansas and Minnesota, Mason is one of only six active coaches to win at least 40 games at two different Division I schools and is one of only four active coaches to win at least two bowl games at two different Division I institutions.

In 2004, Mason led the Gophers to their second 5-0 start in two seasons, which marked the first time since 1940-41 that the Gophers had accomplished that feat. Under Mason, the Gophers continued their great offensive tradition by finishing among the top 30 in the nation in rush offense (5th, 256.8), total offense (15th, 438.3 ypg) and scoring offense (29th, 30.1). In 2004, the Gophers also became the only school in the nation to both run and pass for at least 2,000 yards in each of the past six seasons. The Gophers averaged 6.3 yards per play and 438.3 yards per game in 2004, the second-highest averages in school history. Mason has built a new level of offensive consistency as the Gophers have currently recorded 27 consecutive games with at least 300 yards of total offense. Minnesota also joins Boise State as the only teams to finish in the top 35 nationally in total offense each of the past six seasons.

With their victory in the Music City Bowl last season, the Gophers join Michigan, Ohio State, Purdue and Wisconsin as the only Big Ten teams to play in bowl games five of the past six seasons. Mason has won 43 games over the past six seasons, which is the most wins during a six-year span at Minnesota since 1903-08.

In 2003, Mason led the Gophers to their first 10-win season since 1905 and their best conference finish since 1999. Under his direction, Minnesota also won its second straight bowl game with a 31-30 victory over Oregon in the Sun Bowl. That victory marked the first time in school history that the Gophers had won back-to-back bowl games. Mason's offensive unit was one of the most prolific in both Big Ten and school history in 2003. The Gophers set a Big Ten record for total offense (6,430) and finished with the fourth-highest rushing total (3,759) and sixth-highest point total (503) in Big Ten history. On top of those marks, the Gophers also set new school records in several other categories including: touchdowns

Mason's Portfolio

- Led Minnesota to five bowl games in the last six years and has won three consecutive bowl games. He is the only coach in school history to take Minnesota to five bowl games during his tenure.
- Directed the Gophers to a 29-14 victory over Arkansas in the 2002 Music City Bowl. Posted a 31-30 victory over Oregon in the 2003 Sun Bowl, giving Minnesota consecutive bowl victories. Earned a third consecutive bowl championship against Alabama with a 20-16 victory in the 2004 Music City Bowl, becoming one of only eight teams to win three bowls the past three seasons.
- His 43 wins over the last six seasons (1999-2004) represent the best six-year win total at the University of Minnesota since 1903-08.
- One of only six active coaches with at least 40 victories at two different Division I schools and one of only four active coaches with at least two bowl wins at two different Division I institutions.
- Has coached five players to eight All-America citations in his eight seasons at Minnesota. He has also coached 14 Gophers who were selected in the NFL Draft. Seven Gophers were taken in the 2001 and 2002 drafts, the most in a two-year span since 1990-91.
- Was elected by his peers as the president of the American Football Coaches Association at the 2002 AFCA convention in San Antonio.
- In just his third season, he led Minnesota to an 8-4 record and the Wells Fargo Sun Bowl.
- Led Minnesota to a No. 12 ranking in 1999.
- 1999 Football News National Coach of the Year and finalist for the 1999 FWAA Eddie Robinson and the 1999 Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year awards.
- 1999 Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year
- Has directed three of the most monumental turnarounds in college football at Kent State, Kansas and Minnesota.
- Is one of only three coaches in NCAA history to be named the conference coach of the year in three different conferences, (Big Ten — 1999, Big Eight — 1995, 1991, Mid-American — 1986).
- 1995 Football Writers Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award finalist, 1995 Region IV Coach of the Year and 1995 Big Eight Conference Coach of the Year
- 1992 Football Writers Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award finalist and 1992 Kodak Region IV Coach of the Year
- 1991 Big Eight Conference Coach of the Year
- 1986 Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year
- 223-164-4 overall record in 33 seasons as a head/assistant coach

(66), rushing touchdowns (46), yards-per-play (6.6), completion percentage (61.3%), first downs (326) and 500-yard games (7). Minnesota led the Big Ten and finished among the NCAA leaders in rushing offense (3rd, 289.2 ypg), total offense (4th, 494.6 ypg) and scoring offense (7th, 38.7 ppg) in 2003.

Mason also led the Gophers to a 6-0 start in 2003, which was the best opening to a season since 1987. The Gophers recorded seven straight victories under Mason dating back to 2002, which was the longest winning streak at Minnesota since 1961.

In 2002, Mason took the Gophers to new heights as Minnesota opened the season 4-0 for the second time in his tenure at Minnesota. The Gophers' success continued as Minnesota won seven of its first eight games, the school's most successful start since 1961.

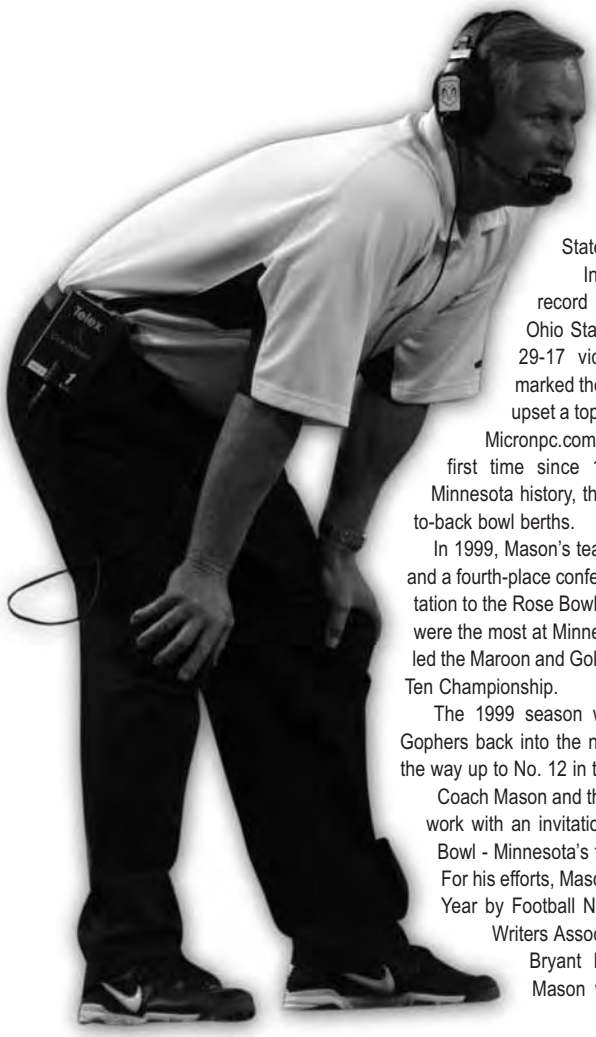

Under Mason, the Maroon and Gold ventured into uncharted territory in 2002, earning their third bowl berth in four years, despite having only one senior starter on defense and only one senior who started all 13 games on offense. By earning a bid to the 2002 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl, Mason became the first coach in school history to lead the Gophers to three bowl games during his tenure. Mason then directed Minnesota to a bowl win with a convincing 29-14 victory over Arkansas.

Mason's All-Americans

Glen Mason's program at Minnesota has produced five first team All-Americans in his eight years, breaking a 26-year drought. Overall, the five players have earned eight All-America certificates. Prior to Mason's arrival, Minnesota's last All-American was in 1971. The streak of four straight years ties the run of four straight All-America selections from 1960-63, when Minnesota appeared in two Rose Bowls and won a national title.

All-American	Years
Lamanzer Williams, DE	1997
Tyrone Carter, DB	1998, 1999
Ben Hamilton, C	1999, 2000
Preston Gruening, P	2000
Greg Eslinger, C	2003, 2004

The 2001 campaign was a transition season, with all but two new starters on defense and an entirely rebuilt offensive line. The Gophers missed out on a third straight bowl game after suffering three losses by less than a touchdown (Purdue in overtime, Northwestern by six and Ohio State by three).

In 2000, Minnesota jumped out to a 5-2 record by defeating Illinois, Penn State and Ohio State in consecutive weeks. The Gophers' 29-17 victory over the fifth-ranked Buckeyes marked the second straight season that Minnesota upset a top-10 team. Minnesota earned a bid to the Micronpc.com Bowl in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. It was the first time since 1985-86, and only the third time in Minnesota history, that a coach led a Gopher team to back-to-back bowl berths.

In 1999, Mason's team posted an 8-3 regular season record and a fourth-place conference finish at 5-3. They missed an invitation to the Rose Bowl by a mere field goal. The eight victories were the most at Minnesota since 1967 when Murray Warmath led the Maroon and Gold to an 8-2 record and a share of the Big Ten Championship.

The 1999 season was a record year as Mason led the Gophers back into the national spotlight. Minnesota climbed all the way up to No. 12 in the national polls.

Coach Mason and the Gophers were rewarded for their hard work with an invitation to the 66th annual Wells Fargo Sun Bowl - Minnesota's first postseason bowl game in 13 years. For his efforts, Mason was named the National Coach of the Year by Football News and was a finalist for the Football Writers Association Eddie Robinson and Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year awards. Mason was the first U of M coach to garner nationwide honors since Murray Warmath did so in 1960 when he led Minnesota to a national title. In addition, Mason was the first Minnesota coach ever to be named the Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year by the conference coaches.

By winning the Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year Award, Mason became only the third coach in NCAA history to win a coach of the year award in three different conferences (Kent – MAC; Kansas – Big Eight; Minnesota – Big Ten). He joins John Mackovic (Wake Forest – ACC; Illinois – Big Ten; Texas – Southwest) and Denny Stolz (Michigan State – Big Ten; Bowling Green – MAC; San Diego State – WAC) on that elite list.

Mason's immediate impact was clearly evident during his first season at the U of M in 1997. It was the program's finest effort to that point since 1985. The Gophers broke or tied a total of 28 school records during the '97 season. In 1999, Minnesota broke or tied 26 individual and team school records, and in 2000, they matched or surpassed 15 school marks.

Mason's impact on the University of Minnesota football program isn't limited to wins and losses. Since taking the controls in 1997, 14 Gophers have been selected in the NFL Draft. Compare that with the five seasons prior to Mason's arrival in Gold Country when only two Minnesota players were drafted. Minnesota had seven draftees between 2001 and 2002, the most in a two-year span since 1990-91. In 2001, Willie Middlebrooks became the first Gopher to be selected in the first round since Darrell Thompson in 1990.

Prior to taking over the reins of the Gopher program, Mason spent nine seasons turning around the fortunes of the University of Kansas football program. Named head coach of a struggling Kansas program prior to the 1988 season, Mason proceeded to direct one of the most monumental turnarounds in all of college football. Before his arrival, the Jayhawks had gone winless in 15 consecutive Big Eight games, and had won a total of four games in the previous two seasons. On top of that, Mason had just 50 scholarship student-athletes in camp for his first spring practice.

After going 1-10 in his first season in 1988, 4-7 in 1989 and 3-

7-1 in 1990, Mason led the Jayhawks to a 6-5 record in 1991, the school's first winning season since 1981. That earned him Big Eight Coach of the Year honors for the first time in his career.

It only marked the beginning of what was to come for Jayhawk fans. From 1992-95, he guided the Jayhawks to 29 wins, the most in any four-year period at Kansas in the previous 85 years.

In 1992, Mason was named the Kodak Region IV Coach of the Year and was a finalist for National Coach of the Year honors when he led the Jayhawks to an 8-4 overall record, a third-place finish in the conference with a 4-3 mark and a 23-20 victory over Brigham Young in the Aloha Bowl. It was the first bowl appearance for Kansas since 1981 and its first bowl win since 1961. The Jayhawks were ranked No. 22 in the final AP national poll, the first time a KU team ended the season nationally ranked since 1973.

Mason was honored as the 1995 Big Eight Conference Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Football Writers "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award, when he led Kansas to a second-place tie in the league, a win over UCLA in the Aloha Bowl, and a No. 9 ranking in the final Associated Press poll with a 10-2 overall record. It marked the first time since 1905 that a Kansas team had won 10 games in a season and the first time since 1968 that a Jayhawk squad was ranked in the nation's top 10 in the final Associated Press poll.

Mason is a 33-year coaching veteran who coached more games (102) than anyone in Kansas' school history. Succeeding with programs that had previously suffered through hard times is nothing new for the

In Mason's eight full seasons as head coach, 14 Golden Gophers have been selected in the NFL Draft. Compare that with the five seasons prior to Mason's arrival in Gold Country when only two Minnesota players were drafted. Twenty-one of Mason's players are currently on NFL rosters.

Coach Mason and his wife Kate joined former president George Bush during the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award ceremony in Houston, Texas following the 1999 season. Mason was a finalist for the award in addition to being named the Football News National Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year.

Colonia, N.J. native. Prior to taking the head job at Kansas, he had two successful seasons at Kent State University. In 1986, he led the Golden Flash to a 5-6 record and a runner-up finish in the Mid-American Conference. In 1987, Kent registered a 7-4 mark, the program's first winning season in more than a decade.

A 1972 graduate of Ohio State with a bachelor's degree in education and a letterwinner on the Buckeyes' 1970 Big Ten championship team, Mason began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ball State in 1972. His first full-time position was as the defensive coordinator at Allegheny College in 1973. He returned to Ball State for one season in 1974 as defensive line coach, then worked for two seasons (1975-76) as offensive line coach at Iowa State before coming back to the Big Ten Conference in 1977 as the offensive line coach at Illinois.

In 1978, Mason returned to his alma mater and spent the next eight years under Ohio State head coaches Woody Hayes and Earle Bruce. In each of those seasons, the Buckeyes appeared in eight postseason bowl games – Fiesta Bowl (1980, 1983), Liberty Bowl (1981), Holiday Bowl (1982), Gator Bowl (1978), Citrus Bowl (1985) and Rose Bowl (1980, 1984). Mason coached outside linebackers and the offensive line before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1980, where he served until 1986. During his tenure as offensive coordinator in Columbus, the Buckeyes led the Big Ten in scoring offense four times and total offense twice.

Mason-coached teams have had an impressive track record for moving the football and scoring points. The year prior to his arrival at Kansas, the Jayhawks ranked 101st in the country in scoring offense, last in the Big Eight in rushing

Mason Second Only To Paterno In Career Wins

Glen Mason reached the 100-win plateau in his career in 2003. The 18-year head coaching veteran ranks second among all active Big Ten coaches in career NCAA Division I-A victories:

offense and 101st nationally in total offense. From 1991-96, the Jayhawks averaged more than 27 points per game and set a host of school records. On the other side of the ball, the defense forced 127 turnovers from 1993-96 to rank near the top of the Big Eight/Big 12.

In 1999, Minnesota ranked second in the Big Ten (11th in the nation) in rushing offense with an average of 227.2 yards per game on the ground. Minnesota was third in the Big Ten (24th nationally) in total offense at 410.2 yards per game, and sixth in the Big Ten (20th nationally) in scoring offense with 30.7 points per game.

The results on the other side of the ball were just as impressive, if not more so. The 1999 Gophers ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 22nd in the nation in total defense, allowing just 319.9 yards per game. That was the program's best since 1985. In addition, Minnesota was first in the Big Ten in passing defense (179.4), the best since 1969. They were second in pass defense efficiency (98.4), and second in scoring defense, which both ranked eighth nationally. Those were the best categorical numbers since 1967. In contrast, Minnesota ranked dead last in total defense, pass defense and 10th in scoring defense in the Big Ten the year before Mason arrived.

Mason earned his master's degree in education from Ball State in 1973. In January of 2002, Mason was named the president of the American Football Coaches Association. He was the third Minnesota coach to be awarded this honor joining Bernie Bierman (1935) and Murray Warmath (1968). Mason was elected president by his peers at the 2002 AFCA convention in San Antonio. He had previously served as the first vice president. The board is responsible for formulating policy and providing direction for the more than 10,000-member organization.

Mason and his wife, Kate, a dentist at Veker and Mason in Edina, are very active with a variety of charitable organizations in the Twin Cities area, including the Children's Cancer Research Fund and Catholic Charities. Despite his very busy schedule, Mason has served as the Annual Fundraising Chairman for Catholic Charities and as the Co-Chair of the Red Cross Annual Gala.

In April 2003, the St. Lawrence Catholic Church and Newman Center presented Mason with the Isaac Hecker-Cardinal Newman Award at their first annual awards banquet at the McNamara Alumni Center on the U of M campus. The Isaac Newman-Cardinal Newman Award recognizes the contributions of individuals in living out Catholic values in society.

The Masons have five children — sons, Pat and Brian, and daughters, Chris, Alissa and Mallory.

Mason's Construction of A Winning Tradition At Minnesota

1997 • 3-9 overall

Mason's first season at Minnesota included wins over Iowa State, Memphis and Indiana and some close calls against some of the nation's top teams. Top-ranked Penn State escaped with a 16-15 win over the Golden Gophers in State College, and the following week, Wisconsin edged the Gophers 22-21. However, it was clear that Mason had instilled a new attitude in the football program. Lamanzer Williams became the first Gopher player since 1971 to be named an All-American after leading the nation in sacks with 18.5.

Mason was introduced as the 24th head coach at the University of Minnesota on Dec. 14, 1996.

1998 • 5-6 overall

During Mason's second year at the helm, Minnesota showed vast improvement, jumping out to a 3-0 record and posting Big Ten wins over Michigan State and Iowa. Mason led Minnesota to its first five-win season since 1990 and was a point away from a potential bowl berth. Indiana nipped Minnesota 20-19 and Michigan escaped with a 20-15 victory against the Gophers. Tyrone Carter became the second Gopher in as many years to be named an All-American after recording 158 tackles.

Mason ended a 17-game skid against Michigan State with a 19-18 win in 1998 at the Metrodome.

1999 • 8-4 overall • Sun Bowl

Mason directed Minnesota to its best record since the 1967 co-Big Ten championship team. The Gophers earned a bid to the Sun Bowl, its first post-season trip since the 1986 Liberty Bowl. The Gophers climbed to No. 12 in the national polls, their highest ranking since the 1962 season. The ranking could have reached even higher as Minnesota was an overtime loss to Wisconsin away from a piece of the Big Ten crown and a trip to the Rose Bowl. The Gophers scored a win over a top-five team for the first time since 1986 with a 24-23 upset of then-second-ranked Penn State in State College, Pa. Two Golden Gophers, Tyrone Carter and Ben Hamilton, earned All-America honors. Carter broke the NCAA career record for tackles by a defensive back with 528 and earned the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. Thomas Hamner and Billy Cockerham led the nation in rushing yards by teammates.

Minnesota upset second-ranked Penn State 24-23 in 1999 on a Dan Nystrom field goal as time expired. Mason led the Gophers to their first bowl game in 13 years in 1999.

Mason was named the Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year, the Football News National Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the FWAA Eddie Robinson and the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year awards.

Mason joined Purdue quarterback Drew Brees and CBS' Bryant Gumbel at the 1999 Football News National Player and Coach of the Year ceremonies in Detroit.

2000 • 6-6 overall • Micronpc.com Bowl

Above: Minnesota secured a second-straight bowl bid in 2000 by defeating Iowa in the regular season finale. Below: The Gophers defeated Ohio State in Columbus for the first time in 51 years.

Mason's Gophers qualified for a second straight bowl game for just the third time in school history and the first time since 1985-1986. After a 6-5 regular season, the Gophers advanced to the Micronpc.com Bowl against North Carolina State. The Gophers highlighted their season by defeating Ohio State 29-17 in Columbus for the first time in 51 years. Center Ben Hamilton and punter Preston Gruening earned All-America honors, giving Mason six All-American honors during his tenure. After several close losses, including a hail-mary touchdown against Northwestern, Minnesota clinched a bowl bid with a 27-24 victory over Iowa in the regular season finale. Mason's troops set or tied 15 school records during the season.

2001 • 4-7 overall

Minnesota's quest for a school record third straight bowl bid came up short as the Gophers lost several close games during the course of the season. Purdue defeated Minnesota in overtime after kicking a field goal as time expired during regulation. Ohio State edged Minnesota by three points and Northwestern escaped with a six-point win. However, Mason's squad defeated Michigan State and downed Wisconsin in the season finale to claim Paul Bunyan's Axe for the first time since 1994.

Mason's 2001 squad ended the year with a 42-31 victory over Wisconsin.

2002 • 8-5 overall • Music City Bowl Champions

Mason took the Gophers to new heights as Minnesota opened the season 4-0 for the second time in his tenure at Minnesota and only the fourth time since 1960. The Gophers' success continued as Minnesota won seven of its first eight games, the school's most successful start since 1961. Mason guided the Gophers back to the postseason with a bid to the Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn., where they defeated Arkansas 29-14 in dominating fashion to give the program its first bowl win since 1985. The Gophers posted one of the nation's best rushing attacks, running for more than 300 yards in three straight weeks during the season. The eight-win season capped a stretch of 26 victories over the last four seasons, the highest four-year win total at the school since 1940-43.

Mason accepts the 2002 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl trophy after defeating Arkansas 29-14.

2003 • 10-3 overall • Sun Bowl Champions

The 2003 season marked several major milestones. Mason led the Gophers to their first 10-win season since 1905 and their best conference finish since 1999. He also presided over a team that won its second straight bowl game with a 31-30 victory over Oregon in the Sun Bowl. That victory marked the first time in school history that the Gophers had won back-to-back bowl games. The Gophers reached their fourth bowl game in the past five years and completed the season with a No. 17 ESPN/USA Today national ranking (No. 20 AP).

Mason also led the Gophers to a 6-0 start, which was the best opening to a season since 1987. The Gophers recorded seven straight victories under Mason dating back to 2002, which was the longest winning streak at Minnesota since 1961.

Mason directed an offense that was one of the most prolific in both Big Ten and school history. The Gophers set a Big Ten record for total offense (6,430) and finished with the fourth-highest rushing total (3,759) and sixth-highest point total (503) in Big Ten history. On top of those marks, the Gophers also set new school records in several other categories including: touchdowns (66), rushing touchdowns (46), yards-per-play (6.6), completion percentage (61.3%), first downs (326) and 500-yard games (7). Minnesota led the Big Ten and finished among the NCAA leaders in rushing offense (3rd, 289.2 ypg), total offense (4th, 494.6 ypg) and scoring offense (7th, 38.7 ppg).

On a personal note, Mason earned his 100th career victory with a 36-10 win over Illinois on October 25. He became just the second active coach in the Big Ten to reach 100 career NCAA Division I-A victories.

Mason is interviewed by CBS' Jill Arrington following the Gophers' 31-30 victory over Oregon in the 2003 Sun Bowl.

2004 • 7-5 overall • Music City Bowl Champions

The Gophers reached unchartered territory under Mason in 2004 as they won their third straight bowl game with a 20-16 victory over Alabama. Minnesota became one of only six current schools to win three consecutive bowls against BCS schools.

Mason also extended the Gophers non-conference winning streak (including bowls) to 16, which is currently the best mark in the Big Ten and the longest streak of its kind at Minnesota since 1944-50.

Minnesota continued to post astounding numbers under Mason as the Gophers amassed more than 300 yards per game in a school-record 27 consecutive games heading into 2005. Minnesota also averaged 438.3 yards of total offense and 256.8 yards rushing per game, both of which ranked second all-time in the schools annals.

At the conclusion of the 2004 season, Minnesota was the only team in the NCAA to have both run and pass for at least 2,000 yards the past six seasons. The Gophers also joined Boise State as the only two teams to rank in the top 35 in total offense the past six years.

Mason was involved in another remarkable feat in 2004. Tailbacks Marion Barber III and Laurence Maroney each surpassed 1,000 yards each for the second consecutive season, which marked the first time two players had accomplished that feat in NCAA history.

For the third straight year, Mason sent his seniors out on a winning note as the senior class registered 29 wins over a four-year span. That total represents the most wins by a senior class since 1934-37.

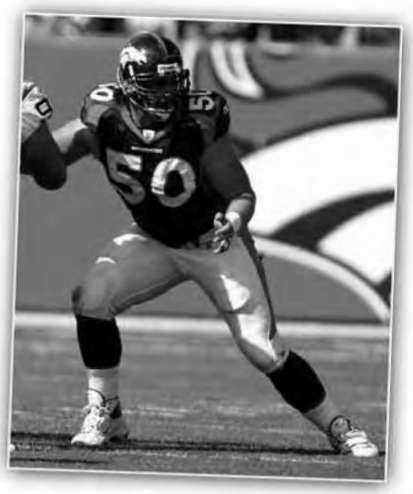

Mason is interviewed by ESPN's Alex Flanagan following the Gophers' victory over Alabama in the 2004 Music City Bowl. The win marked the third consecutive bowl victory for the Gophers.

"Coach Mason has had an amazing impact on me both as a person and as a football player. He is like a father figure for me. He gives it to you straight and teaches you the right way to do things. He has the kind of qualities that you look for in a football coach, but he also cares deeply about his players as people."

— TYRONE CARTER, DEFENSIVE BACK, PITTSBURGH STEELERS
Jim Thorpe Award Winner, 1999 • Two-time All-American, 1998-99

"As a native of Minnesota, I have seen first-hand the amazing job that Coach Mason has done with the Golden Gopher Football program. He is an excellent coach and has taught me a lot about football, but more importantly he has taught me about life on and off the field. He turned the program around and made it into a winner. I know the future is very bright for the Golden Gophers."

— BEN HAMILTON, GUARD, DENVER BRONCOS
Two-time All-American, 1999-2000

"Coach Mason and the Minnesota football program made a huge difference for me as a student-athlete. I had a difficult experience at SMU as a freshman and Coach Mason gave me a chance to come to Minnesota, get my college career in order and contribute on the field. He believes in hard work and discipline and is just as interested in your academic success as your success in football. He, and the support staff that Minnesota Football provides, is one of the main reasons that I have my masters' degree and I'm also getting a chance to play professional football."

— JACK BREWER, SAFETY, NEW YORK GIANTS
First Team All-Big Ten, 2001

Coming to Minnesota was like a home inside a home. It is a family-based environment that I loved being a part of. I will always be thankful for the opportunity to come here. I was not a highly-recruited player, but Coach Mason and his staff gave me an opportunity. That is something that I will always appreciate and never forget.

— MARION BARBER III, RUNNING BACK, DALLAS COWBOYS
First Team All-Big Ten, 2003

"Coach Mason and Minnesota Football have a long history of recruiting players from Detroit. That was a big influence on my decision to attend Minnesota. It was close enough to home that my family could see me play and provided a great academic opportunity as well. Coach Mason believes strongly in the importance of education and that was a great fit for me and my family. I worked hard and had the support necessary to graduate in three and a half years. That gave me the opportunity to, not only have my degree, but also focus on preparation for my professional career. Not many programs can give you all of that."

— RON JOHNSON, WIDE RECEIVER, CHICAGO BEARS
Two-time All-Big Ten, Minnesota's all-time leader in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns

MOE ANKNEY

assistant head coach • outside linebackers

fifth season

Moe Ankney is entering his fifth season on head coach Glen Mason's staff and his third as assistant head coach. Ankney was promoted to that title following the 2002 regular season, after serving as defensive coordinator from 2001-02. On top of his administrative responsibilities as assistant head coach, Ankney will move from defensive ends coach to outside linebackers coach in 2005. He had began working with the defensive ends since 2002 after guiding the secondary in 2001.

Last season, Ankney played a key role in the emergence of Darrell Reid as one of the Big Ten's top defensive lineman. Under the direction of Ankney, Reid was an All-Big Ten performer last season and finished second in the Big Ten in tackles-for-loss with 18 and sixth in sacks with 7.5. Ankney's unit also closed the season strong against the run as the Gophers held Iowa to six yards rushing and limited Alabama to 21 rush yards in the final two games of the season.

In 2003, Ankney's defensive ends placed a priority on shutting down the opposition's running game. The Gophers didn't allow an opposing back to rush for 100 yards in 2003. His defensive unit may have saved their best for Oregon in the Sun Bowl as Minnesota equalled a season high with four sacks and held the Ducks to only 77 yards rushing en route to a 31-30 victory.

In 2002, Ankney's defensive ends tallied 19 of the team's 31 sacks, which was five sacks more than the entire team totaled in 2001. In his first season at Minnesota, Ankney converted wide receiver Jack Brewer to a first-team All-Big Ten safety that led the conference in tackles per game (14.1).

A 34-year veteran of college football coaching, Ankney arrived at Minnesota from the University of Missouri, where he served as the Tigers' defensive coordinator for the previous seven years. Ankney has helped rebuild several major programs, including Ball State, Tulane and Arizona.

At Missouri, Ankney was a candidate for the Frank Broyles Assistant Coach of the Year Award in 1998 when he helped Missouri reduce its touchdowns allowed from 45 in 1997 to 21 in 1998. He also helped the Tigers to back-to-back bowl games in 1997 and 1998.

In 1997, Ankney received the Missouri Total Person Program's Academic Enhancement Award. The yearly award is given to a Missouri coach who has made significant contribution to his team's academic success.

Ankney joined the Tiger staff in 1994 on the day that fellow coach and friend Larry Smith was named head coach. Ankney had previously worked with Smith at Tulane (1976-79) and at Arizona (1980-85).

A veteran of Big Ten Conference coaching, Ankney was Purdue's defensive coordinator from 1991-1993. In his three seasons with the Boilermakers, Ankney coached three of his players to first-team All-Big Ten honors, including All-American defensive tackle Jeff Zgonina, the 1992 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as chosen by the media.

Before his stint with Purdue, Ankney returned to his alma mater, Bowling Green, in 1986. Ankney served as Bowling Green's head coach from 1986-1990. Ankney's Falcons consistently finished near the top of the Mid-American Conference standings and were known for their demanding yearly non-conference schedule. He compiled a 20-31-3 record in his four years at Bowling Green.

Prior to his coaching tenure at Bowling Green, Ankney was the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at Arizona from 1980-1985, where his aggressive unit finished among the nation's defensive leaders.

Ankney also coached at Tulane, handling the defensive coordinator and secondary coach duties from 1976-79, and at Ball State, his first collegiate coaching stint, where he served as secondary coach from 1971-75.

Ankney is well-known for his rebuilding efforts. During his four decades of college coaching, he has helped rebuild several struggling programs. In Ankney's first season at Arizona, the Wildcats finished 5-6. By his last season, the school was 8-3-1 and earned an invitation to the Sun Bowl. While at Tulane, the Green Wave went from a record of 2-9 in 1976 to a 9-2 mark and a Liberty Bowl berth in 1979. At Ball State, the Cardinals improved from a 4-5-1 record in 1971 to a 9-2 record in 1975.

During his stint at Ball State, Ankney coached with Gopher head coach Glen Mason in 1972 and 1974.

Ankney started his coaching career in 1964 at Eaton (OH) High School as an assistant coach. He stayed in the Ohio high school level until 1971, when he was hired at Ball State.

During his playing years at Bowling Green from 1961-64, Ankney played on two MAC champion teams. He was a reserve quarterback and lettered twice under legendary coach Doyt Perry.

Ankney graduated from Fairmont High School (OH) in 1960. He was an all-state quarterback and was chosen for the Ohio All-Star game. He also was named the Dayton area's most outstanding athlete in 1959.

He received his bachelor's degree from Bowling Green in 1964 and his master's degree from Miami (OH) in 1969.

Ankney has three children: Angie, Andy and Molly, and six grandchildren. He is married to the former Jane Barry.

Mitch Browning is entering his ninth season at Minnesota and his 20th season serving under head coach Glen Mason. Browning has worked under Mason at Kent State, Kansas and Minnesota. Browning will take over as the sole offensive coordinator in 2005 after serving as co-offensive coordinator with Tony Petersen since February of 2000.

Under Browning, the Gopher offense has reached new levels of national acclaim and has not only shattered the school record book, but has helped reshape all-time Big Ten records. During Browning's reign, the Gophers' offense has succeeded by finding a way to effectively mix the run with the pass. Minnesota is the only team over the past six seasons to both rush and pass for over 2,000 yards each year. The Gophers have also finished among the top 35 in total offense in the nation the past six seasons.

Browning has also been instrumental in the success of the Gophers' nationally-ranked running game and the production of tailbacks Marion Barber III and Laurence Maroney. Last season, the Gophers ranked fifth in the NCAA in rushing offense and Barber and Maroney became the first players in the NCAA history to each rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons (2003-04). In 2004, the offense extended its streak of consecutive games with at least 300 yards of total offense to 27 entering 2005. The team also averaged 438.3 yards of total offense, 256.8 yards rushing, 6.3 yards per play, and scored 47 touchdowns, the second-highest averages in school history.

With Browning helping to lead the way, the Gophers posted one of the most prolific offensive seasons in Big Ten history in 2003. Minnesota set a Big Ten record for total offense (6,430) and finished with the fourth-highest rushing total (3,759) and sixth-highest point total (503) in Big Ten history. On top of those marks, the Gophers also set new school records in several other categories including: touchdowns (66), rushing touchdowns (46), yards-per-play (6.6), completion percentage (61.3%), first downs (326) and 500-yard games (7). Minnesota led the Big Ten and finished among the NCAA leaders in rushing offense (3rd, 289.2 ypg), total offense (4th, 494.6 ypg) and scoring offense (7th, 38.7 ppg) last season.

Browning was recognized for his work and the success of the Gophers' offense in 2003 as he was selected as a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award, given annually to the top football assistant coach at the NCAA Division I level.

In 2002, the Gophers' offense reached new heights, tying a school record for touchdowns in a season with 45 and by moving the chains at an alarming rate, recording a single-season school record of 268 first downs. The Gophers also had two players (Terry Jackson II & Thomas Tapeh) each tally at least 900 yards rushing on their way to finishing with the third-highest rushing average in the ground-oriented Big Ten (209.8 ypg).

In 2001, the Gophers owned the second-best rushing attack in the Big Ten at 217.2 yards per game. Minnesota averaged a school record 429.1 yards per game in 2000 and posted the second-best passing attack in the Big Ten (232.2 ypg). They also finished second in the conference and 11th in the nation in pass efficiency (140.7). In 1999, the Minnesota offensive unit ranked second in the Big Ten and 11th in the nation in rushing offense (227.2) and third in the Big Ten and 14th in the nation in total offense (410.2).

Along with his coordinator duties, Browning is also responsible for the tight ends and tackles, whom he has worked with since 1999. He had previously served as the tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator in both 1997 and 1998, in which the Gophers signed outstanding recruiting classes both years. A versatile coach, Browning has coached seven different positions during his 27-year coaching career.

Browning aided Ben Utecht (2000-03) in becoming a two-time All-Big Ten selection and one of the premier tight ends in the country. Utecht owns the career record for receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,211) by a tight end and is ranked among the top 15 all-time in school history in those categories. Browning, a Perrysville, Ohio, native, has also made the offensive tackle position one of prominence and stability at Minnesota. Last season, Browning coached Rian Melander to first-team All-Big Ten honors and the team limited the opposition to nine sacks, the fewest allowed by the Gophers since 1970. In 2003, Gopher tackles held the opposition to the fewest sacks (16) in the Big Ten. Former tackles Jake Kuppe and Jeremiah Carter also earned All-Big Ten recognition under Browning.

Browning was also the tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator on Mason's staff at Kansas from 1995-96. Prior to that, he was the Jayhawks' outside linebackers coach from 1991-94 and the school's defensive secondary coach from 1988-90. In addition, he served as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks/tight ends coach at Kent State from 1985-87 and the wide receivers/quarterbacks coach for the Golden Flash from 1983-84. In 1982, Browning was a graduate assistant wide receivers coach while Mason was the offensive coordinator at Ohio State when the Buckeyes averaged 425.1 yards per game and went 9-3 overall with a win in the Holiday Bowl.

Browning began his collegiate coaching career in 1979 as a graduate assistant at Miami (Ohio). He then became the wide receivers coach as a part-time assistant at North Carolina State in 1980-81 where he coached Mike Quick, who went on to become a first round draft pick of the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles and an eventual five-time NFL All-Pro selection.

Browning is a 1979 graduate of Capital (Ohio) University, where he was a four-year starter at linebacker during his collegiate career and an All-Ohio Athletic Conference selection as a senior.

Browning is married to the former Jane Grey Baldwin.

DAVID LOCKWOOD

defensive coordinator • inside linebackers

fourth season

David Lockwood will embark on a new chapter in his coaching career in 2005 as he begins his first season as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach and his fourth overall season with the Gophers.

Lockwood was named coordinator in February of 2005 after serving in that position for the 2004 Music City Bowl. He couldn't have had a more successful debut in leading Minnesota to a 20-16 victory over Alabama and the Gophers' third consecutive bowl victory. His squad limited the Crimson Tide, the 21st-ranked rush offense in the nation (200.7 ypg), to a mere 21 yards rushing, the Tide's lowest total of the season. The defense also helped turn the game around when defensive tackle Anthony Montgomery forced a fumble by Alabama quarterback Spencer Pennington and defensive lineman Keith Lipka recovered the ball in the endzone for the first Gophers' score.

Lockwood had been the defensive secondary coach since 2002 and had served as the recruiting coordinator in 2003, which has been labeled as one of the Gophers' most successful recruiting classes in the Mason era.

In only three seasons at Minnesota, Lockwood wasted little time placing his stamp on the Gopher secondary. Under his direction the defense improved its interception total from seven in 2002, to 11 in 2003 and 12 in 2004. Last year's interception total was the most by a Minnesota defense since 1998.

In 2003, the Gophers registered 48 pass breakups and had at least three breakups in every game except one. The Gophers also didn't allow their opponents more than 14 passing touchdowns in a season for the second consecutive year (2002-03), which marked the first time a Gopher team had accomplished that feat since 1990-91.

Lockwood opened eyes in 2002 as Minnesota led the Big Ten in pass defense and finished among the top 20 in the nation by limiting the opposition to an average of 178.6 yards passing per game. That total reflected the lowest average against the Gophers since 1996. The Gophers had finished sixth in the Big Ten in pass defense the year before Lockwood's arrival.

Individually, Lockwood has also contributed to the success of several Gopher defensive backs. Last season Ukee Dozier tied the school record for career pass breakups and became the first Gopher cornerback since Willie Middlebrooks in 2000 to be named first-team All-Big Ten. Safety Eli Ward was named honorable mention All-Big Ten in consecutive seasons (2002-03). Ward led the Gophers in tackles in 2002 and 2003, posting 96 tackles in 2003 after a career-high 116 stops the previous year. Lockwood was also instrumental in the development of cornerback Michael Lehan, who was honorable mention All-Big Ten in 2002. Lehan set the school record for pass breakups in 2002 and was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the fifth round of the 2003 NFL Draft.

The Media, Pa., native has built a strong resume in his 16 years of collegiate coaching. Lockwood came to Minnesota from Notre Dame, where he spent the 2001 season as the cornerbacks coach for the Fighting Irish. Lockwood was part of a major resurgence in the secondary at Notre Dame in 2001 as the Irish finished 10th in the nation in pass defense. It was only the third time in the past 54 years that the Irish were ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass defense.

Before his coaching tenure at Notre Dame, Lockwood, a 1989 West Virginia University graduate, returned to his alma mater in 2000 as the defensive backs coach under legendary coach Don Nehlen. In his only season with the Mountaineers, Lockwood's secondary finished ninth in the nation in interceptions with 19 and capped off a 7-5 season by defeating Mississippi in the Music City Bowl.

Prior to his arrival at West Virginia, Lockwood joined the University of Wyoming as defensive secondary coach in December of 1999 before returning to his alma mater in March of 2000.

Lockwood spent five years at the University of Memphis from 1995-99, coaching wide receivers his first four seasons and the secondary in his final year. Among the defensive backs he coached at Memphis were Reginald Howard, a member of the Miami Dolphins, cornerback Mike McKenzie of the New Orleans Saints, Michael Stone of the St. Louis Rams and Idrees Bashir of the Carolina Panthers.

In 1994, Lockwood coached the James Madison receivers and tight ends, helping the Dukes reach the NCAA Division I-AA quarterfinals.

Lockwood began his full-time coaching career at the University of Delaware, where he was the wide receivers and tight ends coach from 1990-93. The Blue Hens won two Yankee Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA I-AA playoffs in 1991, 1992 and 1993 during his tenure.

A four-year letterman and three-year starter from 1985-88 for the Mountaineers at defensive back, Lockwood played in two bowl games, the 1987 Sun Bowl and the 1989 Fiesta Bowl. He recorded 58 career tackles with two interceptions for WVU. He was a member of the 1988 team that posted the first unbeaten regular season in West Virginia history at 11-0 and played Notre Dame for the national championship.

Lockwood earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from West Virginia in 1989. He and his wife, Heidi, have three children, Autumn, David Jr. and Jeffrey.

1995-96	Kansas wide receivers coach
1997-98	Minnesota wide receivers coach
1999-	Minnesota running backs coach

Vic Adamle, a member of Glen Mason's staff at both Kent State and Kansas, is in his ninth season at the University of Minnesota and his seventh season as the Gophers' running backs coach after handling the wide receivers his first two seasons at Minnesota. Adamle will enter his 20th season working under Mason.

Adamle has presided over the Gophers' running tradition and each season his group has reached an even higher plateau. Since he took over as running backs coach in 1999, Adamle's unit has totaled at least 2,300 yards each season and has reached unchartered territory the past two seasons, surpassing 3,000 yards in 2003 and 2004.

Last season Adamle worked with Marion Barber III and Laurence Maroney, the the most dynamic running back duo in NCAA history. Maroney rushed for 1,348 yards with 12 touchdowns, while Barber tallied 1,269 yards with 11 scores. With those rushing totals, Barber and Maroney became the first duo in NCAA history to each rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. The Gophers also led the Big Ten in rushing (256.8 ypg) and finished fifth in the nation.

In 2003, the Minnesota ground game was electrifying, averaging 289.2 yards per game on the ground, the fourth-highest total in Big Ten history and the third-best average in the nation. The Gophers also rushed for at least 200 yards in 11 of 13 games, which broke the previous record of six games, and tallied 421 yards rushing against Michigan, the most rushing yards ever allowed by the Wolverines. The Gophers led the NCAA in rushing touchdowns with 46, which represents the third-highest total in Big Ten history. Barber and Maroney each ran for at least 1,000 yards in 2003. Barber was named an All-American by the College Football News and was a first-team All-Big Ten performer. Maroney led all freshman running backs in yardage and was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year by Big Ten coaches and media, The Sporting News, College Football News and ESPN.com.

The 2002 season was also a banner year for Adamle as the Gophers' rushing game established several records and was a dominant force in the Big Ten despite losing Barber early in the season to injury. Minnesota finished third in the conference and was among the top-20 rushing offenses in the nation, averaging 209.8 yards per game. The Gophers joined West Virginia as the only two teams in the country to have two running backs (Terry Jackson II, Thomas Tapeh) reach 900 yards rushing in 2002. Minnesota also joined Iowa as the only two teams in the Big Ten to have two backs with at least four 100-yard rushing games. As a team, the Gophers cleared 400 yards rushing once, 300 yards rushing three times and 200 yards on the ground on seven occasions in 2002.

Adamle also helped contribute to the emergence of Jackson in 2002. Jackson exploded onto the scene with 1,317 yards rushing, the fifth-highest single-season total in school history. He also recorded back-to-back 200-yard rushing performances against Northwestern (239 yards) and Michigan State (238 yards), which were the fifth and sixth-best rushing marks in Gopher history.

In 2001, Adamle coached Barber to Freshman All-America honors after he totaled 742 yards with seven touchdowns. In 2000 and 2001, he coached Tellis Redmon to back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons on the ground, making him the first Gopher since Chris Darkins to accomplish the feat. In 2000, Redmon ran for 1,368 yards and All-Big Ten honors. Redmon's 246-yard rushing performance in the Micronpc.com Bowl set a new bowl record and is one of the top individual performances in school history.

Adamle made an immediate impact in 1999 as the Gophers set the school record for rushing yards in a season (2,726) in his first year with that unit. Adamle helped guide Thomas Hamner to first-team All-Big Ten honors in 1999 as Hamner rushed for 1,426 yards. That was also the second-highest single-season rushing mark in school history.

In 1998, Adamle coached honorable mention All-Big Ten wide receiver Luke Leverson and Ron Johnson, who set a pair of freshman single-season school records en route to being honored on The Sporting News Freshman All-America Second Team. In 1997, Adamle worked with Tutu Atwell, who broke virtually all of the school's career receiving records.

Before his arrival at Minnesota, Adamle had been the wide receivers coach at Kansas in 1995-96 after serving as the school's running backs coach from 1988-94. At Kent State, he was the running backs coach in 1986-87 and the wide receivers coach in 1985, after having worked as a graduate assistant coach in 1984.

Adamle has coached the all-time leading rushers at two different schools — June Henley at Kansas and Eric Wilkerson at Kent State. In addition, Kansas running back Tony Sands, who ranked second on the school's career rushing list behind Henley, broke the all-time NCAA single-game rushing record with 396 yards against Missouri in 1991.

A 1983 graduate of Eastern Michigan, Adamle was a two-year starter and three-year letterwinner ('80, '81, '82) as a fullback during his collegiate career for the Eagles. He is the brother of former Northwestern star and television commentator Mike Adamle. Their father, Tony, was a six-time All-Pro selection as a linebacker for the NFL's Cleveland Browns after finishing his collegiate career at Ohio State.

Adamle and his wife, Mary, have a daughter, Amy, and two sons, Tony and Joey.

CAREY BAILEY

first season

Carey Bailey is entering his first season with the Golden Gopher football staff and his 13th overall in the profession. Bailey will serve as the defensive line coach for the Gophers after holding the same title at Oklahoma State in 2004.

Bailey, who has been a part of seven bowl games as a player and a coach, has earned a reputation as a proven recruiter and an intense, hard-working coach.

Before his arrival at Oklahoma State, Bailey was on the coaching staff at Middle Tennessee State, where he spent one season, but helped take the Blue Raider defensive line from last in the league in sacks to near the top. In addition to coaching the defensive tackles at Middle Tennessee State, Bailey also recruited Mississippi, Tennessee and Alabama.

Prior to his coaching stint at Middle Tennessee State, Bailey served five years as an assistant at Louisiana-Lafayette from 1998-2002. Before he joined the UL-Lafayette staff, Bailey was the defensive line coach at Virginia Military Institute from 1995-97.

Bailey, a Morgantown, W.V., native, began his coaching career on the staff at West Virginia working with the defensive secondary when the Mountaineers won the Big East Conference title in 1993 and led the Big East in interceptions in 1994.

Bailey played collegiately at the University of Tennessee and was part of two Southeastern Conference championship teams. He was a four-year letterman from 1988-91 and led the team in tackle-for-loss and in quarterback sacks during his junior season. As a senior he was part of a Tennessee team that led the SEC in total defense.

He finished his collegiate career with 96 total tackles and 7.5 quarterback sacks and participated in four bowl games including the 1988 Peach Bowl, 1990 Cotton Bowl, 1991 Sugar Bowl and 1992 Fiesta Bowl.

Throughout his professional career, Bailey has coached some of the best players in the game, including six players who earned first team all-conference honors under his tutelage. He was on the West Virginia staff that led the Mountaineers to the 1994 Sugar Bowl and the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

Bailey earned a bachelor of arts degree in sociology from Tennessee in 1992.

He and his wife, Angela, have one daughter, Evann Leigh.

Kerry Cooks is beginning his first season with the Golden Gophers in 2005 as defensive secondary coach. Cooks comes to Minnesota from Western Illinois where he served as defensive backs coach and assisted on special teams units for the Leathernecks last season. With Cooks guiding the secondary, Western Illinois led the Gateway Conference in pass defense, limiting their opponents to only 157.2 yards per game. The Leathernecks also forced opponents into the lowest completion percentage in the conference at 45.4%. WIU finished second in the Gateway in interceptions with 17.

A native of Irving, Tex., Cooks began his coaching career in 2003 at his alma mater, Nimitz High School, before joining the Kansas State coaching staff as a graduate assistant for the 2003 season.

While at Kansas State, Cooks worked primarily with defensive game plan preparation and assisted with the Wildcats secondary during their Big 12 championship season. The 11-4 Wildcats finished 2003 ranked sixth in the nation in total defense, eighth in scoring defense, 12th in pass efficiency defense and 17th in rushing defense while earning a trip to the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The Wildcats allowed just four touchdowns in the last 24 quarters of the regular season and limited each of its final six opponents to 14 points or less, including Oklahoma, the nation's most prolific scoring offense. The Wildcats also held four of their last six regular season opponents under 200 yards of total offense and led the nation in sacks with 51.

Cooks is familiar with the Big Ten as he was a four-year letterwinner and two-year starter at strong safety at the University of Iowa from 1994-97. Cooks tallied 60 tackles with two interceptions for the Hawkeyes as a team captain his senior season, earning All-Big Ten honors and selection to the East-West Shrine Game. He helped lead Iowa to bowl games in each of his last three years, including wins over Washington in the 1995 Sun Bowl and Texas Tech in the 1996 Alamo Bowl, and an appearance in the 1997 Sun Bowl against Arizona State. He later graduated from Iowa in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Cooks was a fifth-round draft pick by the Minnesota Vikings in 1998 and also played for Green Bay, Atlanta and Jacksonville before retiring from the NFL in 2001. He also played for the Chicago Enforcers of the XFL in 2001.

Cooks is married to the former Valencia Mitchell.

TONY PETERSEN

passing game coordinator • quarterbacks

seventh season

Tony Petersen is entering his seventh season on the Minnesota coaching staff and his first season as passing game coordinator. Petersen served as co-offensive coordinator the past five seasons as the Gophers rewrote the record book, took the nation by storm and established their brand of offense as one of the best in the NCAA. Petersen, who entered the coaching profession in 1990, also serves as quarterbacks coach.

Petersen has brought a perfect blend to the offense as witnessed by the fact that Minnesota is the only team over the past six seasons to both rush and pass for over 2,000 yards each year. The Gophers have also finished among the top 35 in total offense in the nation the past six seasons.

Last year proved to be another exceptional season as the offense extended its streak of consecutive games with at least 300 yards of total offense to 27 entering 2005. The Gophers also averaged 438.3 yards of total offense, 256.8 yards rushing, 6.3 yards per play, and scored 47 touchdowns, the second-highest averages in school history.

Under Petersen, the Gophers posted one of the most prolific offensive seasons in Big Ten history in 2003. Minnesota set a Big Ten record for total offense (6,430) and finished with the fourth-highest rushing total (3,759) and sixth-highest point total (503) in Big Ten history. On top of those marks, the Gophers also set new school records in several other categories including: touchdowns (66), rushing touchdowns (46), yards-per-play (6.6), completion percentage (61.3%), first downs (326) and 500-yard games (7). Minnesota led the Big Ten and finished among the NCAA leaders in rushing offense (3rd, 289.2 ypg), total offense (4th, 494.6 ypg) and scoring offense (7th, 38.7 ppg) last season.

Petersen played a key role in the development of quarterback Asad Abdul-Khaliq (2000-03), who rewrote the school record book at Minnesota during his four seasons. Under Petersen, Abdul-Khaliq became the school's all-time total offense leader with 7,818 yards and also set school records for career touchdown passes (55) and season completion percentage (63%, 2003). He ranks second all-time in career passing yards (6,660) and career completions (481), and in 2003, he led the Big Ten and finished fifth in the nation in pass efficiency (162.3).

In 2000, Petersen helped Travis Cole become one of the nation's most efficient quarterbacks as he posting a rating of 137.6, which ranked 16th in the nation. Prior to Petersen's arrival in 1999, the Gophers hadn't posted consecutive seasons with at least 16 touchdown passes in their history. Since that time, Petersen's quarterbacks have thrown for at least 16 touchdowns in five straight seasons, including 20 in 2000 and 21 in 2002.

Petersen was also instrumental in the success of Minnesota quarterback Billy Cockerham in 1999. Under Petersen's guidance, Cockerham broke school records for rushing yards by a quarterback (831) and rushing touchdowns by a QB (10).

A 1988 graduate of Marshall University, where he charted a record-setting career of his own at quarterback for the Thundering Herd, Petersen came to the U of M after eight successful seasons (1991-98) in several different capacities as an assistant coach at his alma mater. During Petersen's eight-year tenure at Marshall, the Thundering Herd made eight straight postseason appearances. In his final season at Marshall, Petersen served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach as the Thundering Herd captured their second straight Mid-American Conference title and defeated Louisville in the 1998 Motor City Bowl.

Petersen was Marshall's quarterbacks coach for five seasons (1993-95, 1997-98) and his signal-callers collected first-team all-league honors four times. Headlining that list was Marshall quarterback Chad Pennington, who earned first-team All-MAC honors in both 1997 and 1998 and was a finalist in 1998 for the Davey O'Brien Award, which annually honors the nation's top quarterback. Pennington broke the NCAA record for touchdown passes by a sophomore with 39 and set a Mid-American Conference record with 3,480 yards passing. Petersen also coached Pennington to Southern Conference Freshman of the Year honors in 1995.

Petersen also coached quarterback Todd Donnan to first-team All-Southern Conference honors in both 1993 and 1994. Donnan was named Southern Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1994. In 1992, Petersen handled Marshall's receivers, where he worked with Troy Brown, an all-pro wideout for the NFL's New England Patriots. Petersen, who began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kentucky in 1990, coached Marshall's running backs in 1991.

As a player at Marshall, Petersen was named the 1988 Southern Conference Athlete of the Year and the Southern Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1987. A free agent signee of the Minnesota Vikings in 1989, Petersen set 16 Southern Conference single-season and career records in passing and total offense, to go along with six Marshall single-season school marks. That includes a record 35 touchdown passes in 1987. He also set NCAA records for most passes in a game without an interception (68) and for most regular season games (11) with more than 200 yards passing.

Petersen went to Marshall after a stellar career at Delta Community College in Stockton, Calif. He was drafted by the Kansas City Royals after his first season at Delta C.C. Petersen also played three seasons for the Thundering Herd baseball program.

A native of Lodi, Calif., Petersen earned his master's degree in athlete administration from Marshall in 1995. His grandfather, Ike Petersen, played for the NFL's Detroit Lions. Tony and his wife, Beth, have three children - Andy (11), Nikki Nelson (9) and Taylor (3).

2001-	Minnesota guards and centers coach

Gordon Shaw enters his 13th year at Minnesota and his fifth straight year directing the guards and centers. Shaw returned to the offensive side of the ball for the Gophers in 2001 after coaching the defensive line the previous four seasons. Shaw had coached the offensive line from 1993-96.

Shaw has developed two of the top interior lineman in the nation over the past three seasons with senior center Greg Eslinger and senior left guard Mark Setterstrom. Eslinger is a two-time All-American and All-Big Ten performer, who is also a two-time Playboy Preseason All-American. Setterstrom was honored as an All-American by Rivals last season and earned first-team All-Big Ten recognition as well.

That duo helped make 2004 as memorable as 2003 as they helped pave the way for tailbacks Marion Barber III and Laurence Maroney to each rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons (2003-04), a feat which had never been accomplished in NCAA history until last season. On the other side of the coin, Shaw's unit also limited the opposition to a mere nine sacks, the lowest total against Minnesota since 1970.

Shaw coached one of the top interior lines in Gopher history in 2003. Eslinger was named a third-team Associated Press All-American as a sophomore, becoming the first Gopher to earn All-America status since 2000. Guards Joe Quinn and Setterstrom were also recognized for their efforts as Quinn was a second-team All-Big Ten selection, while Setterstrom was named honorable mention.

Shaw's linemen helped pave the way for the Gophers in 2003 as they set the Big Ten record for total offense (6,430) and finished with the fourth-highest rushing total (3,759) and sixth-highest point total (503) in Big Ten history. The Gophers also set several other school records and became only the third team in Big Ten history to have two 1,000-yards running backs in the same season in large part because of Shaw's positional unit. The Gophers' guarded the quarterback as well as they blocked for their tailbacks, leading the Big Ten in sacks allowed with 1.2 per game.

In 2003, Shaw was honored by receiving the Distinguished Service Award from the Minnesota High School Football Coaches Association for his contribution to Minnesota football on and off the field. In 2002, Shaw helped transform Eslinger and Setterstrom, two true freshman, into the Maroon and Gold's stars of the future, as each started all 13 games and were both named to The Sporting News Freshman All-Big Ten Team. Shaw's interior lineman also set the tone for running backs Terry Jackson II (1,317 yards) and Thomas Tapeh (906 yards), while finishing second in the Big Ten in sacks allowed per game (1.3). In 2001, center Derek Burns earned honorable-mention recognition under Shaw and helped the Gophers finish second in the Big Ten and 14th in the nation in rushing (217.2).

While working with the Gopher defense in 2000, Shaw assembled one of the Big Ten's most athletic and skilled lines in the nation. His defensive line included All-Big Ten performers Karon Riley, Greg White and John Schlecht. Riley led the Big Ten in sacks twice and was drafted by the Chicago Bears. Schlecht was transformed from a walk-on in 1997 to a two-time All-Big Ten pick and the all-time school leader in tackles-for-loss. Schlecht would go on to play for the San Francisco 49ers and New Orleans Saints.

Shaw's defensive line racked up 25 of the team's 32 sacks in 2000 and ranked fourth in the Big Ten in pass defense. With Shaw's linemen up front playing a major role, the Gopher defense rose to fourth in the Big Ten and 22nd in the nation in 1999, giving up 319.9 yards per game. Minnesota also ranked first in the Big Ten in pass defense and second in scoring defense and pass defense efficiency, which were the highest rankings in those areas since 1967. Shaw was recognized for the team's success as he was named the Nike Assistant Coach of the Year in 1999.

In 1998, the Gophers ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 13th in the nation in rushing defense by allowing just 103.7 yards per game on the ground. That was the program's best since 1962. After setting a new single-season school record 41 sacks in 1997, the Gophers provided the appropriate encore with 44 sacks in 1999, setting a new school record.

Prior to working with the Gopher defensive line, Shaw had served as offensive line coach at the U of M from 1993-96. The Gophers had one of the most productive offenses in the Big Ten during that time and a large amount of the credit goes to Shaw and his work with the offensive line.

In 1994, Shaw's movers up front helped pave the way for All-Big Ten running back Chris Darkins' successful assault on the Gophers' single-season rushing record.

Shaw came to the U of M from Wyoming, where he served as the offensive line coach from 1990-92. In 1990, the Cowboys compiled a 9-4 overall record and played in the Copper Bowl.

In 1989, Shaw was the defensive coordinator at Idaho when the Vandals went 9-2 and won the conference championship. His coaching career began in 1977 as a graduate assistant at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo. After two seasons at Cal Poly, Shaw became the defensive line coach at Cal State-Northridge in 1979, before returning to his alma mater, Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, as the defensive line coach in 1980-81. Cal Poly won the NCAA Division II national title in 1980. From there, he went to Northern Arizona University, where he spent three years coaching the defensive line. From 1985-88, Shaw, coached at Northern Colorado where he was the offensive coordinator/ offensive line coach.

Shaw earned his bachelor's degree from Cal Poly in 1978 and his master's from Northern Arizona in 1984. Shaw and his wife, Debra, have three daughters, Whitney, Jenna and Aubrey.

LUKE TRESSEL

wide receivers

Luke Tressel is entering his first season as wide receivers coach with the Gophers and his fifth season overall on Glen Mason's staff. Tressel is well-versed in the many aspects of the Gopher football program and will also be a valuable asset as a dedicated recruiter.

Prior to becoming wide receivers coach, Tressel served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Gophers in 2004. Tressel started his coaching career at Minnesota as a graduate assistant with offense from 2001-2002. His focus on the offensive side as a graduate assistant was in working with quarterbacks and wide receivers.

During his time as a graduate assistant he assisted with one of the top receiving combinations in Gopher history as Jared Ellerson (909 yards) and Aaron Hosack (814 yards) combined for the second-highest receiving yardage total (1,723) by a duo in school history in 2003. That pair also became only the second set of Gopher receivers to each total at least 800 yards each in the same season.

Tressel also aided in bringing the big play back to the receiving corps as the Gophers boasted a receiver with the highest average-per-reception in the Big Ten in both 2002 (Hosack, 22.4 ypc) and 2003 (Ellerson, 20.7 ypc).

In 2002, Tressel worked with three players who each had at least 400 yards receiving, which marked the first time that had occurred at Minnesota since 1994.

Tressel is a 2001 graduate of Hamline University with a degree in physical education. He also completed a master's degree in applied kinesiology at Minnesota in 2003. Tressel was a three-year letterwinner and All-MIAC performer at Hamline at cornerback from 1997-2000. His father, Dick, is running backs coach at Ohio State under Luke's uncle, head coach Jim Tressel. His older brother, Mike, is linebackers coach at the University of Cincinnati.

Tressel, a native of St. Paul, Minn., and his wife, Rachel, reside in Eagan, Minn.

1997-	Minnesota assistant athletics director for football operations

Tim Allen is in his ninth season as the assistant athletics director for football operations with the Golden Gophers.

Allen begins his 18th season working for head coach Glen Mason, and as his right-hand man, coordinates the day-to-day operations of the Gophers' football program. Allen's duties include coordinating team travel, bowl game preparations, future scheduling and serving as a liaison between Gopher football and the National Football League (NFL). Allen also serves as the liaison to all university administrative and support areas.

In addition, Allen works closely with the football booster groups, including the Goal Line Club and Touchdown Club.

During his eight-year tenure at Minnesota, the Gophers have appeared in bowl games five times and are one of only six teams to have won three consecutive bowl games over BCS opponents. With victories over Arkansas in the 2002 Music City Bowl, Oregon in the 2003 Sun Bowl and Alabama in the 2004 Music City Bowl, Minnesota has established itself as a respected football program on the national level. Minnesota has also finished among the top 20 in the national polls twice and has accumulated the most wins over a six-year span (43) since the 1903-08 seasons.

Born July 9, 1958 in Seneca, Kansas, Allen attended Nemaha Valley High School. He earned a bachelor of science degree in health physical education and recreation from Bethel College in North Newton, Kansas, where he played wide receiver and was elected team captain as a senior.

From 1982 to 1986, he served as an assistant coach and admissions counselor at his alma mater. Allen and members of the 1984 Bethel football team were inducted into the Bethel College Hall of Fame in October of 2003, becoming the only football team in the school's history to receive this honor.

In 1986, Allen accepted a position as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Kansas. He was promoted to football administrative assistant in 1987 and was retained by Glen Mason when he was named the Jayhawks' head coach in 1988. During his time at Kansas, the Jayhawks made one of the great turnarounds in college football, highlighted by bowl victories over Brigham Young in 1992 and UCLA in 1995. The 1995 team ended the season ranked ninth in the nation.

While at Kansas, Allen served as the academic liaison for football and organized the on-campus recruiting efforts in addition to his other football operations duties.

Allen and his wife, Rochelle, have four children: a son Brett, a daughter Brianna, and twins, Brooke and Brandon.

DWAYNE CHANDLER

head strength and conditioning coach

fifth season

Dwayne Chandler enters his fifth year with the Gopher strength and conditioning staff and his second as the head strength & conditioning coach. Chandler was promoted to that position in April of 2004 after serving as co-head strength coach with the football program in 2003 and as an assistant from 2001-02.

As an assistant with Minnesota's strength and conditioning program, Chandler saw the Gophers defeat Arkansas in the 2002 Music City Bowl to earn their first bowl victory since 1985.

The following season as co-head strength and conditioning coach, Chandler's weight room and running programs were a key part of the Gophers 10-win season, which represented the most wins at the University since 1905. He also helped the Gophers carry the momentum from their final regular season game on Nov. 15 into their bowl game against Oregon on Dec. 31. The Gophers would prevail over Oregon in the 2003 Sun Bowl, winning 31-30 and solidifying their mark as one of the Big Ten's elite. The win over the Ducks marked the first time in school history that the Gophers won consecutive bowl games.

Chandler's drive and intensity wouldn't be satisfied, however, as he continued to challenge the 2004 team. His workouts, lifting sessions and speed and agility testing would push the Gophers to a third straight bowl victory as the Gophers defeated Alabama in the 2004 Music City Bowl.

Prior to arriving in Minneapolis, Chandler gained experience working as an intern in the strength and conditioning department for the University of Oklahoma in 1999 and interning with the Dallas Cowboys in the same capacity in 2000.

A native of Aberdeen, Miss., and a two-time state power lifting champion, Chandler graduated from the University of Oklahoma in 2000. He was a four-year letterwinner as a fullback for the Sooners, leading the team in rushing touchdowns as a sophomore. Chandler continued his football career in the professional ranks, playing for the Dallas Cowboys in the 1997 and 1998 seasons.

Chandler has a son, Dwayne Harris, and resides in Maplewood.

Shannon Bertram is in her ninth season as a full-time member of the Minnesota Football staff and her third as assistant director of football operations. Bertram is also entering her second season as recruiting coordinator for the Gopher football team after adding that title to her current responsibilities in April of 2004.

Bertram has been an integral part to the inner workings of the Gopher football program. She works closely with Tim Allen, Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations, on the administration and day-to-day operations of the program.

Bertram has also been an essential piece of the Gophers' recruiting process since she began working with the team. She serves as the point person for all recruiting-related issues and has helped Minnesota become a more prominent figure in the national recruiting scene. Bertram has helped to not only build, but oversee a successful recruiting base, which has fed off the success of the Gophers' three consecutive bowl championships.

Bertram has served as the program coordinator in charge of the on-campus recruiting, student volunteer group "Go-pher Gold" and other miscellaneous recruiting activities for the past eight seasons. She also added administrative responsibilities including team travel and housing.

A native of Cold Spring, Minn., Bertram graduated from the University of Minnesota with a bachelor's degree in rhetoric, educational psychology, and women's studies. She is currently working towards her master's degree in sport management. Bertram resides in Minneapolis.

BLAKE CUNDIFF

assistant strength and conditioning coach

Blake Cundiff is in his first season with the Golden Gopher football program as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Cundiff, a native of Dallas, Texas, spent four years as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of North Texas (1993-97) and was also the director of strength and conditioning for The Athlete's Course in Plano, Texas from 1996-97. He would later join the Dallas Cowboys strength and conditioning program as an assistant, working with the Cowboys from 1997-2000.

Cundiff has also served as head strength and conditioning coach for Grapevine (Texas) Mustang Football from 2002-04 and has been the owner and president of PROSTAR Sports Performance Programs since 1996. Prior to his arrival at Minnesota, Cundiff was the executive sports performance director for Velocity Sports Performance in 2005.

BEN McDANIELS

defensive graduate assistant

Ben McDaniels is in his second season with the Gophers and will serve as a defensive graduate assistant in 2005.

McDaniels is a 2003 Kent State University graduate with a degree in sports management. He is currently pursuing a master's degree at Minnesota.

McDaniels, a Canton, Ohio native, played with the Golden Flashes from 1999-2001 as a quarterback. Prior to arriving in Minneapolis, he was an assistant coach at Warren Harding High School in Warren, Ohio.

JEREMIAH CARTER

offensive graduate assistant

Jeremiah Carter is in his second season with the Gophers and will serve as an offensive graduate assistant in 2005.

Carter is a 2002 University of Minnesota graduate with a degree in history. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in education.

Carter was a two-year letterwinner with the Gophers and was named honorable-mention All-Big Ten by both the media and coaches in 2002. Carter earned the Paul Giel Award for unselfishness and concern for the University of Minnesota and the Neil Fredenburg Award for courage and love of the game his senior year.

His father, Carlyle, was the executive director of the Division III Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference from 1994-2005. He is a native of St. Paul, Minn.

DAN SAPANARO

offensive administrative assistant

Dan Sapanaro is in his second season with the Gophers and his first as an offensive administrative assistant. Last season he served as a recruiting assistant with the Golden Gopher football program.

Sapanaro is a 2004 Walsh (Ohio) University graduate with a degree in education. He is currently pursuing a master's degree at Minnesota in sports management. Sapanaro, a Cleveland, Ohio, native, played football at John Carroll (Ohio) University from 1999-2001 before competing as a linebacker and center at Walsh from 2002-2003.

SHANE SANDERSFELD

director of athletic communications for football

Shane Sandersfeld is in his fourth season as the athletic communications director for the Golden Gopher football program. Sandersfeld handles all of the athletic communications for head coach Glen Mason and the Gopher football program.

Sandersfeld came to Minnesota after spending three seasons as a media relations assistant for the Minnesota Vikings. In addition, he served as a stadium team assistant working on the University of Minnesota / Minnesota Vikings football stadium pre-design project team. Prior to his term with the Vikings, Sandersfeld worked at Minnesota State, Mankato for two years (1998-2000) as a sports information graduate assistant. From 1996-1998, he was the sports information director at the University of Sioux Falls.

A native of Williamsburg, Iowa, Sandersfeld graduated from the University of Sioux Falls in 1996 with a degree in broadcast journalism.

MIKE SCHAAF

director of video services

Mike Schaaf will begin his 10th season working with the Golden Gophers' video services and his fifth season as the director of the department. Schaaf has been shooting video for the Gophers since spring practice in 1996. Starting as a part-time student assistant, he worked his way through every facet of the team's video department, becoming the Gophers' full-time video assistant in 2000.

A 1995 graduate of Apple Valley High School, Schaaf started producing independent sports videos as a high school sophomore. In addition to football, he has shot footage and produced programming for high school hockey, soccer and volleyball, and intercollegiate baseball and track.

He also has worked as a video intern for Midwest Sports Channel (now part of Fox Sports), served as a freelance producer for several independent cable programs, and shot documentary footage of a team of Twin Cities heart surgeons participating in a 2,000-mile bicycle marathon.

He earned a bachelor's degree in speech communications from the University of Minnesota in 1999. Schaaf and his wife, Misti, have a son, Brandon (2), and reside in Otsego.

assistant video coordinator

Greg Davis enters his fifth year with the Golden Gopher football program working in video services. He is in his fourth season as the assistant video coordinator after spending his first season as a student assistant. He assists Mike Schaaf in all day-to-day video operations and plays an important role in the video recording of practices and games.

Davis is a business management major at the University of Minnesota with a minor in communications. A native of Stillwater, Minn., he is a 1997 graduate of Stillwater High School.

EQUIPMENT STAFF

The University of Minnesota athletic equipment staff may work behind the scenes, but their efforts are evident every single time a Golden Gopher student-athlete takes the field wearing the Maroon and Gold.

The job of the equipment staff is to work with the coaches, administrators, and medical staff to ensure that the U of M student-athletes have the proper, effective equipment in premium conditions to assure the athletes' health and well being.

The function of the athletic equipment area is complex, labor-intensive, and vitally important to the success of any major college athletic program. In addition to providing superior service to the coaches and athletes, the equipment staff also has responsibilities in the areas of inventory control, purchasing decisions, budget management, safety issues, NCAA compliance, and event operations.

The equipment staff works year-round with the top equipment manufacturers in the country. Their objective is to provide the Golden Gophers with a superb look on the fields of competition, and to fit Minnesota's student-athletes with the most modern and efficient practice gear.

Minnesota is fortunate to have an experienced staff of full-time and part-time equipment staff members dedicated to helping U of M student-athletes perform at their highest level.

Transporting football equipment, either to the Metrodome or to any of the other major college football venues in the country, can be a daunting task. Minnesota is fortunate to be the beneficiary of a generous donation of time and equipment from Berger Transfer, one of the biggest Allied Moving Agents in the world. Much of that equipment comes in the form of a 65-foot Maroon and Gold moving truck with the Golden Gopher football logo adorning its sides.

The Dirck's family, which owns and operates Berger Transfer, has long supported Minnesota athletics in many ways, from hiring student-athletes in the offseason to direct gifts in the Williams Scholarship Fund. This is just one of the many ways the Twin Cities community helps the Golden Gophers get the job done.

academic counselor

Brooke Sawyer enters her fourth season as an academic counselor for Golden Gopher football. She is in her fifth year on the academic counseling staff. Sawyer also works with Minnesota's men's and women's golf and women's hockey teams.

Sawyer is a Minnesota alum, graduating in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. She earned her master's in kinesiology from North Texas in 2000. She was an academic counselor at Texas Tech before returning to her alma mater.

CHRIS CORDS

academic counselor

Chris Cords is in his third season working as an academic counselor with Golden Gopher football and with the academic counseling staff. Cords, who began working with the Gophers in August of 2003, also works with the Minnesota men's and women's gymnastics teams and men's and women's swimming and diving teams.

Cords is a University of Minnesota Duluth alum, graduating in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in psychology. He earned his master's degree from Springfield College (Mass.) in 2002. He previously worked with football and women's basketball on the academic counseling staff at the University of Houston.

director of equipment operations

Serving as the director of equipment operations for U of M Athletics is Dan Glinski. Glinski is entering his sixth season at Minnesota after spending four years at East Carolina University. He supervises all five of Minnesota's equipment rooms on campus with his primary focus being the football equipment room.

While at ECU, Glinski supervised 17 men's and women's sports, including the football team. Prior to East Carolina, Glinski worked with the Atlanta Falcons and Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets, both in internship positions.

He graduated in 1995 with a major in sports management from Georgia Southern University. Glinski is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and serves as the association's National Membership chairman. Glinski, 32, is married to the former Rhonda Owens. The couple resides in St. Paul, Minn.

JASON NANCE

assistant equipment manager

Beginning his sixth season as the assistant equipment manager for football is Jason Nance. He coordinates all day-to-day football equipment operations. Nance came to Minnesota in 2000 after a stint as an intern at the University of Cincinnati. He also interned with the Baltimore Ravens in 1998.

A native of Louisville, Miss., Nance is a 1998 graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi with a degree in sports administration. While at Southern Miss, he also obtained his master's degree in sports administration in 1999.

Nance is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers' Association. Nance, 30, is married to the former Sara Livingston and resides in Rosemount, Minn.

SPORTS MEDICINE

Golden Gopher football student-athletes receive the best in state-of-the-art professional athletic and medical care.

The football athletic training staff consists of four certified athletic trainers who coordinate the health care needs of the team on a daily basis. Head football trainer Ed Lochrie and his assistants work closely with a staff of physicians, orthopedic surgeons and many other allied health professionals to monitor and provide the best in health care to each student-athlete on a year-round basis. Dr. Pat Smith and Dr. Patrick Morris serve as team physicians and are the cornerstones of the athletic medicine team.

The football treatment center is located in the Gibson-Nagurski Football Complex. This facility is equipped to provide for all the health care needs of the football student-athletes. Athletes report to the treatment center for the prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of any injuries or illnesses. Team orthopedic surgeons and general physicians visit the treatment center daily to evaluate and help treat any injury or illness. Chiropractic and massage therapy is also offered in the treatment center throughout the season. If an athlete requires additional specialized care, a network of allied health professionals has been established in the Minneapolis area to provide for those needs.

In addition to the Gibson-Nagurski treatment center, the athletic department maintains six other modern and extensively equipped treatment centers to provide for the 25 various athletic teams. Fourteen athletic trainers staff these treatment centers. All athletic trainers are certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and are registered in the state by the Minnesota Board of Medical Practice. Moira Novak oversees the entire program as the Director of Athletic Medicine and serves as the head athletic trainer for the women's basketball team. Dr. Elizabeth Arendt serves as medical director overseeing the staff of doctors and works closely with Novak when it comes to policy-making.

Preventive measures are being studied constantly by the University of Minnesota sports medicine staff. A complete computer network linking all six athletic training rooms allows the staff to share information, communicate via InterNet ®, and provide and receive data from the Big Ten, WCHA and NCAA Injury Surveillance Systems. The members of the athletic medicine team have been pioneers in educating both coaches and athletes on safe practice principles and proper techniques which, in turn, has led to a reduced injury rate.

Excellent facilities, a knowledgeable and dedicated staff, preventive measures and a continuous desire to provide the best medical care possible to Golden Gopher student-athletes, all add up to keep the University of Minnesota team on the cutting edge of the national sports medicine scene.

head football trainer

Ed Lochrie is entering his third season as the head football trainer for the University of Minnesota after being hired in May of 2002. Lochrie is responsible for the complete health care of the football team and is in daily communication with head coach Glen Mason. Lochrie arrived in Gold Country from the University of Kansas where he served as the head football trainer during the 2001-02 season.

Prior to his work at Kansas, he spent seven years (1994-2001) as an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Colorado. Lochrie worked with the Colorado football team all seven years and was also involved with the men's basketball team from 1994-97. He came to Boulder, Colo., from the University of Denver, where he worked as the head athletic trainer from 1993-94 after serving as an assistant athletic trainer from 1990-93. During his four years at Denver his primary focus was with the men's hockey team.

Lochrie, a Bishop, Calif., native, graduated from the University of Colorado in 1987, earning a bachelor's degree in biology. He earned his master's in physical education from Michigan State in 1990.

CHRIS ASHTON

assistant athletic trainer

Chris Ashton is entering his fourth season as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Minnesota and the Golden Gopher football team. Ashton, a Wheeling, W.V., native, graduated from West Virginia University in 2000 with a bachelor of science degree in physical education in athletic training. While serving as a student athletic trainer, Ashton worked with all Mountaineer athletic programs including football, wrestling and baseball.

Ashton is familiar with the Big Ten, working as a graduate assistant athletic trainer with the University of Michigan football program from 2000-2002. He received his masters' degree of science kinesiology from Michigan in April 2002 prior to his arrival at Minnesota. Ashton currently resides in St. Paul, Minn.

ANDY MUTNAN

assistant athletic trainer

Andy Mutnan is entering his third season with the Gopher football team and his second as an assistant athletic trainer. Mutnan, an Arvada, Colo., native, graduated from the University of North Dakota in 2002 with a bachelor of science degree in athletic training. Mutnan was a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Gophers in 2003 prior to becoming an assistant.

Mutnan has also worked as an athletic training intern at the University of Colorado from 2002-03, working with football and men's and women's tennis.

Mutnan and his wife, Amy, currently reside in Eden Prarie, Minn. The couple was recently married on June 27, 2005.

The Metrodome

The Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome, home of Golden Gopher football since 1982, is the nation's largest air-supported, multiple-use facility. It has been the site of two World Series, a Super Bowl and two NCAA Final Fours, and has kept over five million college football fans warm as they watched and cheered University of Minnesota football.

In addition to serving as the home facility for the Golden Gophers, the Metrodome is home to the Minnesota Vikings and Twins. In 1989, it also served as home to the Timberwolves, who set the all-time NBA attendance record in their inaugural season.

The Metrodome is located in downtown Minneapolis, just minutes away from the University campus. Its seating capacity is listed at 64,172, but more than 65,000 fans have packed the place for Minnesota football. A stadium record 65,184 attended the Minnesota-Iowa game in 2002.

The Golden Gophers have provided their fans with some stellar play in the Metrodome of late. Minnesota is 26-13 at the Dome over the last six years. Minnesota played seven home games for just the 10th time in the modern era last season as well. The 2004 schedule includes conference games with Northwestern, Penn State, Illinois and Iowa.

The noise generated by nearly 65,000 fans has given the Metrodome a nickname: The ThunderDome. Baseball fans around the country will remember the moment during the late innings of Game 6 of the 1987 Minnesota Twins-St. Louis Cardinals World Series when ABC-TV's decibel meter broke because of the mind-numbing roar which bordered on illegal.

No decibel meter has been used during Golden Gopher games, at least not yet. But fans know that it can be deafening when Minnesota scores in one of its border-battle games against Wisconsin or Iowa. The Metrodome has, in its 22-year history, established itself as a top collegiate football venue.

About the Dome

The Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome, which opened in 1982, is financially self-supporting. It is the only public stadium in the country that does not rely on a continuing tax subsidy to finance operations, maintenance or debt payments.

The Metrodome is owned and operated by the Metropolitan Sports Facilities Commission (MSFC), but is home to the Minnesota Golden Gopher football and baseball teams, the National Football League's Minnesota Vikings and Major League Baseball's Minnesota Twins.

The Metrodome is covered by more than 10 acres of Teflon-coated fiberglass. It is the only air-supported dome of its kind in the country, and fans enter the stadium through revolving doors that prevent release of the air that keeps the dome upright. The roof requires 250,000 cubic feet of air pressure per minute to remain inflated. In all, the Metrodome cost less than $75 million dollars to build.

Memorial Stadium

1924-1981

Opened on Oct. 14, 1924, Memorial Stadium served as the home of the Golden Gophers for 57 years. The stadium was dedicated to the 3,527 university workers and graduates who served in World War I, 98 of whom died in service. Built on approximately 11 acres where the current University Recreation Center, Aquatic Center and McNamara Alumni Center stand today, Memorial Stadium had 52,736 permanent seats but could seat over 56,000. The horseshoe-shaped stadium also served as the home track and field facility. With the addition of temporary bleacher seating, more than 60,000 fans could fit into Memorial Stadium as a stadium-record 66,284 fans watched Minnesota face Purdue on Nov. 18, 1966.

The stadium, which took seven months to construct, cost $572,000 to build. More than 475 workers were employed for the construction that required more than 1.4 million feet of lumber, one million bricks and 90,000 sacks of cement. Minnesota played its first game in Memorial Stadium on Oct. 14, 1924, defeating North Dakota 14-0. Tickets for the inaugural game were just one dollar.

The Golden Gophers had a stellar record in Memorial Stadium, including 12 unbeaten seasons at home. They didn't suffer a losing season at home from the building's inception in 1924 until 1950, a span of 26 years.

Memorial Stadium was changed to artificial turf in 1970 but then switched back to natural grass in 1977. The stadium was demolished in 1989 and 2,000 of the original bricks were used in the building of Mariucci Arena. University officials debated renovation of Memorial Stadium, but instead opted for a move to the Metrodome.

Greater Northrop Field

1899-1923

Named in honor of University President Cyrus Northrop, Greater Northrop Field opened its doors in 1899. Prior to the stadium's construction, the University of Minnesota played on a field south of the Armory. The grandstand consisted of chairs around the sidelines. When rates for a downtown stadium increased, the University found it a necessity for an enclosed stadium on the campus.

Built in front of Pillsbury Hall, which still stands today, the Northrop Field originally featured a nine-foot high board fence built by the student body. A quarter-mile track ran around the playing field. Alfred Pillsbury organized the building of a massive brick fence that was built around the original grandstand that made Northrop Field unlike any other stadium in the country at the time. The grandstand seated 8,000 fans and was 33 rows high. Additional seating in the end zones added to the seating capacity.

Minnesota played its first game at Northrop Field in November of 1899 against Northwestern where it suffered an 11-5 defeat. The last game was played in 1923 when Minnesota beat Iowa 20-7. Perhaps the most memorable game was a 6-6 tie with Michigan when an over capacity 20,000 fans crowded into the stadium.

2005 opponents listed in bold

1934 National Champions

The Golden Gopher football program is one built strongly on tradition. After winning the first-ever Big Nine team title in 1900 and outscoring opponents by an incredible 618-12 margin in 1903, the University of Minnesota football team finally won its first national championship in 1934.

Under the leadership of third-year coach Bernie Bierman, the Golden Gophers averaged 33.7 points during the 1934 campaign, relying heavily on a potent running attack. The running game accounted for nearly 295 of the 325 yards the Maroon and Gold averaged each game. The Golden Gophers were equally productive on the defensive side of the ball, shutting-out four of their eight opponents, while holding them to a meager 4.7 points and 103 yards per game.

Three players led Minnesota while earning All-America honors — Francis "Pug" Lund, Bill Bevan and Butch Larson, who earned the honor for a second straight year. Larson became only the third Golden Gopher to earn All-America status for two straight years, and is among eight players in Minnesota history to earn such a distinction. In addition to Lund, Bevan and Larson, the Golden Gophers featured three more All-Big Ten players. Perhaps the biggest key to Minnesota's success, however, was a running attack which saw eight different players score touchdowns during the season, led by Stan Kostka with nine touchdowns, including a four-touchdown game.

The talented Golden Gopher team cruised through the first two games of the season with a 56-12 pounding of North Dakota State and a 20-0 victory over Nebraska.

After two weeks of rest, Minnesota looked flat against the Pittsburgh Panthers. They trailed 7-0 after three quarters and were destroyed in nearly every statistical category. The Golden Gophers' hopes for a perfect season were fading. Minnesota was down, but they were not beaten. In the fourth quarter, Larson took the game over by recovering a fumble which led to a touchdown. On the very next series, he threw the winning pass into the end zone. Minnesota's dream for a title refused to die.

The following weekend, the Golden Gophers rebounded in style by crushing the rival Iowa Hawkeyes in Iowa City, Iowa, 48-12. Head Coach Bernie Bierman couldn't have been happier with his team's reaction to their sub-par performance against Pittsburgh. The Golden Gophers held the Hawkeyes to 129 total yards. Minnesota, on the other hand, had little problem moving the ball as they racked up an astounding 514 yards on offense, all of them coming from the running game. Minnesota was led by the exceptional performance of Kostka, who had another outstanding game, scoring three touchdowns, as well as Julius Alfonse, who rushed for two scores.

After dismantling Iowa, Minnesota was still eager to get back on the field. The next opponent was Michigan, and the Golden Gophers sought revenge. They had not brought the Little Brown Jug back to Memorial Stadium since 1927. Michigan came into Minneapolis sporting a 1-3 record and as the game progressed, proved that a vast talent gap existed between the two teams. Minnesota breezed by the Wolverines 34-0 and the Golden Gopher defense continued to impress crowds as they held Michigan scoreless on a mere 56 total yards for the game. In the meantime, the Maroon and Gold running attack never lost a step as five different players scored touchdowns.

The Golden Gophers continued to roll over opponents in the ensuing weeks, beating Indiana 30-0 and Chicago 35-7. Indiana gained a grand total of zero yards against the smothering Minnesota defense, while Chicago was able to manage 82 yards. With four solid games since the Pittsburgh scare, Bierman and the Golden Gophers had every right to be confident about their chances of winning a conference and national championship heading into Wisconsin.

The Badgers were not a high-scoring team, nor did they allow teams many touchdowns. On this day, however, the Golden Gophers flexed their muscle and scored 34 points against a defense that had only allowed 50 previously. With the victory over Wisconsin, Minnesota wrapped up its perfect season and first national championship.

1935 National Champions

Bernie Bierman started his fourth season as the head football coach at Minnesota in 1935. After leading the Golden Gophers to their first national championship in 1934, expectations ran high for both Bierman and the team.

While the Golden Gophers were hurt by the graduation of three All-Americans from the 1934 season, three other players stepped up their play to earn the same honor in 1935. Tackles Ed Widseth and Dick Smith, along with guard Bud Wilkinson earned All-America honors, while quarterback Babe LeVoir and fullback Sheldon Beise joined the All-America threesome on the All-Big Ten team.

Minnesota opened the 1935 season with a schedule mirroring the previous season with games against North Dakota State and Nebraska to start the year. While the outcome was ultimately the same with the Golden Gophers netting two victories, the offensive production was not quite as stunning. After defeating NDSU 26-6, Minnesota traveled to Lincoln, Neb., to take on the Cornhuskers.

Nebraska showed improvement from the previous season when the Golden Gophers rolled over them 20-0. Minnesota headed into the second quarter trailing 7-6, but was able to put another touchdown on the board before the half to lead 12-7. Nebraska's defense was outstanding the remainder of the game and did not allow the Golden Gophers another touchdown. The Minnesota defense was just as stellar, however, and the Golden Gophers walked away from Lincoln with a 12-7 victory.

While Minnesota's offense was not putting up the same numbers as 1934, the Golden Gopher defense remained just as stifling. Against Nebraska the defense allowed only five first downs and 110 yards, so it was no surprise when Tulane ran into the same brick wall the next weekend in Minneapolis.

The visitors from Louisiana could do nothing right against Minnesota's superior defense, which held them to a mere 60 yards for the game. Minnesota's offense was still sputtering, however, as it managed only 183 total yards, all of them on the ground. The Golden Gophers beat Tulane soundly by a score of 20-0, but there was a bit of concern surrounding offensive production heading into the Northwestern game.

The last time the Golden Gophers played Northwestern was in 1933 when the two teams battled to a 0-0 tie. The result in 1935 was much the same and after three quarters Minnesota held a meager 14-13 lead. Northwestern threatened to move into scoring position late in the fourth quarter, but Wilkinson intercepted a Wildcat pass and returned it to the Northwestern 15-yard line. The Golden Gophers went on to score a touchdown and earn a hard-fought 21-13 win.

If there was any concern over the status of Golden Gopher football after the Northwestern game, Bierman's squad was quick to put it to rest. The Northwestern game was the turning point for Minnesota.

After Northwestern, the Golden Gophers went on to pound opponents by a total score of 115-20 and Beise scored five of his seven touchdowns for the season in those four games. The Minnesota offense seemed to be back on track, but it was tested one last time against the University of Iowa.

The Iowa game held a bit more importance for Minnesota than it had in years past. After the 1934 game in which Minnesota had knocked Iowa's star running back Ozzie Simmons out of the game, Iowa fans were livid and talks of post game mobs buzzed throughout Iowa City. Governor Clyde Herring expressed the same emotion and said, "If the officials stand for any rough tactics like Minnesota used last year, I'm sure the crowd won't."

This caused some concern for Minnesotans and Governor Floyd Olson. In attempt to cool tempers on both sides, Olson bet a prize Minnesota hog against a prize Iowa hog as a friendly gesture. So began the tradition of "Floyd of Rosedale," with the Golden Gophers winning a clean, hard-fought game 13-6 and Olson earning himself a prize Iowa hog.

Minnesota cruised through the remainder of its schedule, beating Michigan, 40-0, and Wisconsin, 33-7. Once again the Golden Gophers had wrapped up an undefeated season and also a national championship by beating the Badgers.

1936 National Champions

Prior to the 1936 football season, the Minnesota football team had gone 24 games without a loss and won back-to-back national titles in both 1934 and 1935. Needless to say, a national championship trend had caught on at the U of M, so the goals for 1936 proved to be no different.

What was going to be different about the 1936 season was the level of competition that the Maroon and Gold would face. Instead of beating up on smaller schools in non-conference games, Head Coach Bernie Bierman added two tough games to the schedule. Rather than playing North Dakota State and Tulane, the Golden Gophers would travel to the University of Washington to take on the fifth-ranked Huskies, and then the University of Texas at home. The tough schedule combined with previous struggles the Golden Gophers had experienced against Northwestern and Nebraska, appeared to present a challenge for the two-time national champions.

Minnesota was set to open the 1936 season against Washington in Seattle, but it was a game that almost did not happen.

The Golden Gophers boarded the train in Minneapolis on Tuesday of that week for a four-day trip to the Pacific Northwest. Coach Bierman scheduled two practices along the way, one in Miles City, Mont., and one in Spokane, Wash., but it was a one-night stay in Missoula, Mont., that almost cost Minnesota its chance with the Huskies.

Asleep in the Florence Hotel in Missoula, the Golden Gophers were forced to wake up around 3 a.m. after it was discovered the building was on fire. The fire destroyed most of the hotel, forcing the team to return to the train for the remainder of the evening. Luckily, nobody was hurt in the disaster.

Once in Seattle, as expected, the game proved a tough one for Minnesota. The stadium was packed with 40,000 Washington fans cheering for the local team. The Huskies tied the Golden Gophers, 7-7, in the third quarter, but to no avail.

The play of Minnesota's Bud Wilkinson and Julian Alfonse proved too much for Washington. Wilkinson knocked down several Washington passes and kicked two extra points before catching a 60-yard pass to put the Golden Gophers in scoring position in the fourth quarter. Alfonse almost single-handedly shut down the Husky offense as he intercepted three passes at the goal line and led Minnesota's ground attack. As a result, Minnesota's win-streak remained in tact as they defeated Washington 14-7.

After narrowly escaping from Seattle with a victory, the Golden Gophers returned home to take on Nebraska the following week. With a grueling trip behind them and an improved Cornhusker team on the field, Minnesota had a difficult time with the second game of the year as well. Nebraska put up a valiant fight, but the Golden Gopher defense foiled the Cornhuskers who could not find the end zone in a 7-0 Minnesota win.

The first two games of the season had threatened Minnesota's win streak, but the next two games left no doubt why the Golden Gophers were the reigning two-time defending national champions. Minnesota romped over Purdue 33-0, and handed Michigan a 26-0 loss to bring home the Little Brown Jug for the third year in a row.

The two solid victories against Michigan and Purdue led into another huge game for the Golden Gophers at Northwestern. Northwestern was highly-ranked in the national polls and it appeared as if this game would determine the Big Ten and possibly the national champion.

Game day conditions were less than ideal as wind and rain persisted throughout the game, hindering ball movement by both teams. Neither team made a serious threat to score in the first half and all statistics were virtually even. The scoreless battle continued until the fourth quarter.

The Wildcats scored at the beginning of the fourth quarter, but failed to convert the extra point attempt. Minnesota put together three furious drives, all edging inside Northwestern's 20-yard line. The Golden Gophers were on the brink of defeat for the first time in 28 games. The Maroon and Gold saw their last chance slip away as a fourth down pass into the end zone was batted away with less than six minutes left. Minnesota's win streak was over. Northwestern dealt the Golden Gophers their first defeat in three years.

Minnesota came out of the Northwestern game with something to prove. They did just that. The Golden Gophers ripped through Iowa, 52-0, to bring home Floyd of Rosedale for the second consecutive time. They also crushed Texas, 47-19, and finished off the season against Wisconsin with a 24-0 victory.

Amazingly enough, even with a loss and no Big Ten Conference title, Minnesota was still voted the 1936 national champion. The Golden Gophers may have lost to Northwestern, but allowed only two other opponents to score. The thorough dominance Minnesota had demonstrated earned them an unprecedented third straight national championship.

1940 National Champions

After three straight national championships from 1934-36, the University of Minnesota suffered its first losing season under legendary coach Bernie Bierman in 1939 when it finished 3-4-1. The experience proved a humbling one for the Golden Gophers who were not accustomed to losing and the result was unpredictable. Minnesota rallied from a mediocre season to win its fourth national championship in 1940.

The Golden Gopher offense was highlighted by the dynamic running tandem of George Franck and Bruce Smith who, together, combined to score over 60 percent of the touchdowns for the Maroon and Gold. Smith starred by scoring winning touchdowns on three separate occasions, while Franck was named an All-American at the conclusion of the season — highlighted by his four touchdowns against the University of Iowa.

Before Minnesota could face a Big Ten opponent, they had to battle with such highly-touted non-conference teams as Washington and Nebraska. Fortunately for the Golden Gophers, both games were at Memorial Stadium.

Heading into the 1940 season, Minnesota had never lost to Washington. The Huskies were ready to change that. Though Minnesota was outplayed in nearly every offensive category, a combination of outstanding kick returns and tough defense allowed the Golden Gophers to squeak by 19-14.

The Golden Gophers were never supposed to get by the Huskies and defeating Nebraska the following weekend seemed even more unlikely. Nebraska knew about the outstanding two-touchdown performance Franck displayed against Washington. Minnesota would have little chance if the Cornhuskers could shut down the running game.

Nebraska's game plan worked wonders on Franck and Smith. What they had not counted on was the superb play of William Daley and William Johnson, who gained nearly 300 yards on the ground for the Golden Gophers. Minnesota's defense once again showed it was golden as it held Nebraska to only 25 yards on the ground. This took the Cornhuskers out of their game and vaulted Minnesota to a 13-7 victory.

Minnesota kept up its streak of close games when it defeated Ohio State 13-7. The Golden Gophers were soundly beaten on paper, and most likely would have been beaten on the scoreboard had it not been for the stellar play of Smith and his two touchdowns.

The next week, Franck finally broke open the Minnesota offense with his four touchdown performance in the Golden Gophers' 34-6 drubbing of Iowa. The celebration would not last long, however, as Minnesota next faced Northwestern — a team that had beaten the Golden Gophers for two straight seasons.

The way Minnesota was playing, Northwestern did not figure to be an overly difficult opponent. They were much improved, however, and the Golden Gopher — Wildcat game had a tradition of being battles to the end. From 1932 to 1949, no Minnesota — Northwestern game was ever decided by more than a single touchdown. The same held true in 1940 as the Golden Gophers edged out Northwestern 13-12. Were it not for two missed point-after attempts by the Wildcats, Minnesota's dream season may have been over.

If college football fans missed the Northwestern game, the game against Michigan proved to be a near carbon copy. Minnesota won, 7-6, once again as a result of a missed point-after attempt. Smith proved to be a major factor in the game as he gained 116 of Minnesota's 205 total yards and scored the lone Golden Gopher touchdown.

After winning two very close games against two quality Big Ten opponents, Minnesota headed into the final two games of the season excited about its chances of bringing a national championship back to Minnesota after a three-year absence. To do so, they would have to get by Purdue and Wisconsin. Neither team proved to be a match for the Golden Gophers as they beat Purdue 33-6, before defeating Wisconsin in the final game of the season, 22-13, to win their fourth national championship in seven years.

1941 National Champions

After returning to the national spotlight in 1940, expectations for the 1941 Golden Gophers were high once again. On top of an already difficult Big Ten schedule, Minnesota had to go to battle once again with national powers Nebraska and Washington. But talk of another title flowed freely throughout Memorial Stadium.

The real superstar, and the key to Minnesota's national title hopes, proved to be Bruce Smith. While Smith was only the third leading rusher on the team, his outstanding play and attitude on the field earned him widespread recognition. He not only earned All-Big Ten and All-America status, but also became Minnesota's first and only player to ever win the Heisman Trophy. While Smith's individual accomplishments were among the greatest in Minnesota history, the fight that the Golden Gophers put up during the 1941 season was every bit as exciting.

Minnesota opened the 1941 campaign against Washington in Seattle. The Huskies had established themselves as a dominant force, and games between the two teams traditionally proved to be very close.

This season's match-up was to be more of the same. The Golden Gophers managed only 213 yards on the ground, 189 of them between Smith and Bill Daley. In the end it was the Minnesota defense who prevailed, smothering its opponent time after time as the Maroon and Gold escaped from Seattle with a 14-6 victory.

Minnesota opened its Big Ten schedule with the conference doormat, Illinois. As expected, the Golden Gophers rolled over the Orange and Blue 34-6. It proved to be a good preparatory game before another non-conference tilt against Pittsburgh.

Minnesota had not played Pittsburgh since the Golden Gophers won their first national championship in 1934. The Panthers gave Minnesota everything they wanted and more in 1934, but 1941 proved to be a different story. Minnesota dominated the Panthers in every aspect of the game. Despite fumbling the ball away four times, the offense racked up 39 points, while the defense stood strong by intercepting two passes and not allowing the Panthers a taste of the end zone.

After the Pittsburgh game, the Maroon and Gold headed into the meat of its schedule against Michigan, Northwestern, Nebraska, and Iowa. It was clear that if the Golden Gophers wanted to repeat as national champions that this stretch of the schedule would determine just how good the team truly was.

Michigan and Northwestern appeared to be the two greatest threats to Minnesota's title hopes. Both teams had established themselves among the best in the conference and historically had given Minnesota fits. History was on Minnesota's side, however, as they had emerged with victories in almost every close game in the past 10 seasons.

Michigan was looking to rain on Minnesota's national championship parade after the Golden Gophers had defeated them on Bruce Smith's lastminute touchdown the previous season. Michigan was able to contain Smith and Daley reasonably well, but in the end the Wolverine offense could not beat Minnesota's defense and the Golden Gophers squeaked out a 7-0 victory.

Northwestern wanted revenge much the same as Michigan since Minnesota had come away with a one point victory the previous season. Northwestern had luck on its side as Smith was injured and unable to carry the ball for the Golden Gophers. It appeared as if the elements were in line for the Wildcats to dethrone the reigning national champions. It was not to be however. Without Smith, Bud Higgins stepped up his game to gain 96 yards for the Golden Gophers and lead them to another exciting one point win over Northwestern, 8-7.

Minnesotans were somewhat concerned with their chances to win without Smith on the field. Against Iowa Head Coach Bernie Bierman chose to sit Smith out and not risk further injuring his knee. After one quarter, the Golden Gophers had not gained a single yard on the ground. Smith realized that if Minnesota was to win another championship he had to contribute. After convincing coach Bierman to put him in the game, Smith put the Golden Gophers in position to score three touchdowns. While Smith did not gain a large number of yards, he had helped to keep the Minnesota championship hopes alive.

The Golden Gophers closed out their season playing the University of Wisconsin. For the fifth time in eight years, Minnesota beat the Badgers to end the season and wrap up a national championship, making Bernie Bierman the winningest coach in school history.

1960 National Champions

The 1960-61 athletic season proved to be one of the most productive ever for the University of Minnesota Athletics Department. Swimmer Steve Jackman won the NCAA 100-yard freestyle while setting the American record, and the hockey team placed third at the NCAA Tournament. The crowning achievements, however, were the two national championships the school won. Baseball won its second national title in four years, while the Minnesota football team returned to national prominence by winning its sixth national title.

Murray Warmath entered his seventh season as the Minnesota head football coach on the heels of three consecutive losing seasons.

Expectations to start the season were not very high as the Golden Gophers were not ranked by a single news service. To add insult to pre-season injury, Minnesota lost to the alumni squad 19-7. The outlook for the 1960 season did not appear to be a bright one.

The Golden Gophers opened the season against Nebraska, a game which virtually no one gave Minnesota a chance to win. Minnesota surprised everyone, thanks to strong performances by All-America lineman Tom Brown and quarterback Sandy Stephens. Stephens completed 5-of-6 pass attempts and kept Nebraska pinned deep by averaging 40.1 yards per punt on seven boots.

Minnesota's 26-14 win over Nebraska did not quiet doubters in the least and was considered a fluke. The Golden Gophers headed into the Big Ten schedule with something to prove.

Minnesota opened the Big Ten season with an impressive 42-0 rout of Indiana. Minnesota's offense sputtered in the first three quarters, but exploded for four touchdowns in the final quarter — two within 60 seconds of each other.

The Golden Gophers next looked to a Northwestern team which had beaten them in each of the previous two years. It looked to be a good challenge for Warmath's undefeated team, especially since they had to contend with Northwestern's outstanding quarterback, Dick Thornton. Minnesota's offense stole the show the week before, and now it was the defense's turn to star against Northwestern. Tom Brown repeatedly leveled Thornton on rushing attacks and held him to minus-14 net yards rushing. When Brown was not stopping Thornton on the ground, he was forcing him into poor passing decisions as the U of M came away with a 7-0 victory over the Wildcats.

The Golden Gophers established their defense as among the toughest in the conference, but against Illinois the Golden Gophers flip-flopped positions and they took an outstanding offensive performance to wrap up the game. Stephens starred by scoring all three Minnesota touchdowns en route to a 21-10 win. Minnesota realized that they must play consistently on the offensive side of the ball in order to keep winning.

Warmath managed to get more consistency out of his offense the next three games, while the defense continued to stifle opponents. The Golden Gophers beat Michigan, 10-0, then went on to defeat Kansas State and Iowa, 48-7 and 27-10, respectively. Minnesota appeared to be rolling with only two games remaining in the regular season.

The Purdue Boilermakers were among the worst teams in the conference in 1960 and looked to pose little problem for the seemingly unstoppable Golden Gophers. Minnesota showed flashes of the alumni game, however, and was shocked 23-14 at Memorial Stadium. The loss was huge. It vaulted Iowa into first place in the major polls, and put Minnesota in a tie for first in the Big Ten. The Golden Gophers had a must-win game against Wisconsin to end the season.

The Badgers were also a fairly weak team, but there would be no repeat upset over the Golden Gophers in the final game of the season as Minnesota cruised to a 26-7 victory. Minnesota's win, coupled with an 8-1 record, earned them enough votes to take over first place from Iowa in both the final AP and UPI polls. The Golden Gophers had earned their sixth national championship and first-ever trip to the Rose Bowl in the process.

Little Brown Jug

Minnesota vs. Michigan

The story of "The Little Brown Jug," neither little nor brown, began at the turn of the century. The fabled "point-a-minute" Michigan football squads, coached by Fielding Yost, were destroying everyone in the nation, and had won 28 straight games heading into Minneapolis in 1903.

The pregame revelry pulsed through the campus. Minnesota had one of its best teams in school history and expected to give Yost's squad a run for their money. Before the game, students paraded across the field with various painted livestock, while fans filtered into the stadium from a constant stream of arriving streetcars. The 20,000 fans, positioned in bleachers, as well as atop trees and telephone poles, remained civil until the Gophers scored a second-half touchdown that tied the score at 6-6. At this point, fans stormed the field in celebration, causing pandemonium so great that the game had to be called with two minutes remaining on the clock.

On the morning following the contest, Minnesota custodian Oscar Munson carried an earthenware water jug to the office of L. J. Cooke, head of the athletics department. Munson pronounced in a heavy Scandinavian accent, "Jost left his yug." Still giddy from the tie, they decided to keep the prize, and painted on its side "Michigan Jug - Captured by Oscar, October 31, 1903," and the score, "Minnesota 6, Michigan 6." The Minnesota score appeared comically "as big as a house," dwarfing the Michigan score beside it. Yost sent a letter asking Minnesota to return the jug. Cooke wrote back "if you want it, you'll have to win it."

The two teams didn't play again until 1909. Michigan won the game that year, and Minnesota dutifully returned the jug. In 1910, Michigan left the conference, and Minnesota didn't have a chance to win it back until 1919. That year the Gophers, led by their star Arnie Oss, stormed into Ann Arbor and pounded the Wolverines 34-7 on their own Ferry Field. When Minnesota asked for the symbolic trophy at the end of the game, their rivals couldn't find it. But the Gopher players persisted, and Wolverine equipment man Henry Hatch came up with it after a short time, saying that he found it "overgrown behind a clump of shrubbery near the gym." Later, Minnesota historians said, "…but most likely it was found in a trophy case inside the gymnasium, easily dusted off and proudly brought back to Minnesota."

Cooke took out his paint brush again to paint that year's result. In the end, his two artistic attempts had taken up the whole surface of the five gallon jug, so when Michigan took it back the next year, the two schools decided to give the entire jug a colorful gloss. Now, the results of 86 games — including two in one season (1926) are embossed on on its sides: 62 won by Michigan, 21 by Minnesota, and three ties. Due to the Big Ten's unbalanced schedule, Minnesota and Michigan did not face each other in either 1999 or 2000, breaking a consecutive streak of annual contests that dated back to the 1929 season.

Minnesota upset top-ranked Michigan to win the Jug in 1977.

Cooke once mused on the strange power within the stonewear crock, "I sometimes think that the jug has been filled with spirits, not alcoholic, but the disembodied spirits of the countless players who have fought for it on the gridiron..."

In many ways, the jug represents the history of college football. It overflows with historic battles for national and conference championships, and may indeed be filled with the spirits of gridiron men who went on to win Heisman Trophies and Hall of Fame honors. It is the most famous of all college rivalry trophies, and no other inanimate object comes close to the aura of tradition like the Little Brown Jug.

Floyd of Rosedale

Minnesota vs. Iowa

The states of Minnesota and Iowa battle it out every year in college football, when their teams face each other in one of the most emotional rivalries in the country. The winner of the game earns the right to keep the bronze statue of a pig called "Floyd of Rosedale."

The year was 1935, and emotions were running hot heading into the Minnesota-Iowa game. Bernie Bierman's Gophers were 5-0, and Ossie Solem's Hawkeyes were 4-0-1. Iowa had recently been reinstated to eligibility following a suspension for slush-fund violations, a suspension that had been ardently supported by a Minnesota representative. To make matters worse, Iowa fans still remembered the contest from the year before, when Minnesota players had roughed up Hawkeye star Ozzie Simmons so badly that he had to leave the game because of injuries.

The game in 1935 was at Iowa, and the host state had not forgotten either of the incidents. Iowa Governor Clyde Herring incited the fans and joined in the bitter feelings toward the state to the north and its football squad by saying, "If the officials stand for any rough tactics like Minnesota used last year, I'm sure the crowd won't."

Greatly alarmed, Minnesota's Governor Floyd Olson tried to cool the hot heads of fans on both sides of the border with his telegrammed answer to Herring. "Minnesota folks are excited over your statement about Iowa crowds lynching the Minnesota football team. I have assured them you are law abiding gentlemen and are only trying to get our goat...I will bet you a Minnesota prize hog against an Iowa prize hog that Minnesota wins."

The diplomatic tactic eased the tension, and the game was a hard-fought, but cleanly played, 13-6 Minnesota victory. More importantly, no mob of angry fans got involved in any postgame, extracurricular activity. The Golden Gophers brought home "Floyd of Rosedale," an award-winning prize pig which had been donated by Allen Loomis, the owner of Rosedale Farms near Fort Dodge, Iowa, and named after the Minnesota governor.

A few days later, Governor Herring collected Floyd and personally walked him into Governor Olson's carpeted office. About the same time, news surfaced that an Iowa fan had sworn out a warrant charging Herring with gambling. Olson good-naturedly offered asylum, but Herring declined. "I might have to go home and write out a pardon for myself," Herring joked.

Governor Olson later offered Floyd up as the grand prize in a state-wide essay-writing contest, which was won by 14-year old Robert Jones. Jones later sold the hog to the U of M. A year later, the University sold Floyd to J.B. Gjerdrum, a breeder who lived near Mabel, Minn., on the Iowa-Minnesota border, for "about $50" according to Gjerdrum. Sadly, in a death most unbefitting a figure of such stature, Floyd passed on to that great pigpen in the sky. As Gjerdrum noted, "We had him about a year. There was hog cholera around…One day he just leaned up against a straw pile and died."

Minnesota defeated Iowa in the 2000 regular season finale to win Floyd of Rosedale.

The spirit of good sportsmanship embodied by Floyd lives on in the form of a 15 1/2-inch high, 21-inch long bronze statue of the prize hog. The sculpture was commissioned by Governor Olson and created by Charles Brioschi, a St. Paul artist.

Every year, since 1935, these two border-state rivals have fought for the right to pen the bronze pig in their own trophy case. During that span, Minnesota has won Floyd 38 times, Iowa has won 29, and there have been two ties. From 1983 to 2000, Minnesota and Iowa saved each other for the most important and emotional season finale slot. Every college football season, Minnesota and Iowa fight for "Floyd of Rosedale," a symbol of how interstate tension can be averted through athletic competition.

Paul Bunyan's Axe

Minnesota vs. Wisconsin

At 114 games and counting, the series between Minnesota and Wisconsin ranks as the longest in Division 1-A football; and "Paul Bunyan's Axe" has the history of one of college football's fiercest rivalries emblazoned on its six-foot long handle. The first game in the series, a 63-0 Gopher victory in 1890, is printed on the handle near the axe's head. The results of every successive game line the handle in red ink. There have been so many games that the scores scroll up and down the width of both sides of the handle, and school officials have now resorted to writing scores on the narrow edges of the six-foot shaft.

By 1930, "Paul Bunyan's Axe" wasn't even created, although the rivalry had already reached feverish levels. The 1906 game was canceled by President Theodore Roosevelt, who had decided to cool off heated college football rivalries, because of injuries and deaths on the field. In 1914, Minnesota faced the Badgers for the Gophers' first Homecoming game; likewise, Wisconsin hosted Minnesota for the Badgers' first in 1919. Between the years 1923 and 1925, the teams battled to three straight ties.

To symbolically capture the amazing atmosphere of the annual match-up, Dr. R.B. Fouch of Minneapolis fashioned a bacon slab out of black walnut to serve as the traveling trophy that he hoped would compare to the well-known "Little Brown Jug," which Minnesota and Michigan played for every year. The "Slab of Bacon," first played for in 1930, had a football carved on top inscribed with an "M" or "W", depending on how you held it. The idea was that the winning team would "bring home the bacon."

But in the early '40s, the Slab of Bacon became the "Missing Slab of Bacon." Peg Watrous, who was the president of Wisconsin women students at the time, relates that she and her counterpart from Minnesota were to have a symbolic exchange after the game, whereby the trophy would be awarded to the winning team. Minnesota won, but in characteristic fashion, a postgame melee broke out on the field, with students and spectators running crazy over the field. Watrous couldn't find her counterpart, and was left "holding the bacon," as it were. "I have no memory of what happened after that…The whole thing was a dud, as I feared it would be," Watrous remembered good-humoredly, "and someone in charge probably hid the bacon."

But the two teams had to play for something, so in 1948 the Wisconsin W Club instituted "Paul Bunyan's Axe" as a trophy more befitting the grand rivalry between the two schools. The annual battles have survived so long that in the '60s the teams started to print the games' final scores smaller and smaller, scrunching the letters in order to avoid reaching the end of the axe's shaft. But the series continued to roll, and the last game to be painted on the broad face of the handle was in 1980. The 18 subsequent games appear on the narrow side of the handle.

Rhys Lloyd's field goal at the end of regulation gave the Gophers a 37-34 win over Wisconsin in 2003.

The Slab of Bacon was back in the news in the summer of 1994, when the long-lost trophy was found after a Camp Randall Stadium storage room was cleaned out. Wisconsin officials estimated that it had been missing since 1945; yet the scores of every Wisconsin-Minnesota game from 1930-70 were printed on the back of the slab. It is one of those Twilight Zonesque mysteries that remains unexplained, and contributes to the legend of Minnesota's and Wisconsin's "Border Battle" rivalry.

Governor's Victory Bell

Minnesota vs. Penn State

Like Floyd of Rosedale, Minnesota's fourth and most recent traditional game trophy was founded by a pair of state governors.

Then-acting Governor Mark Singel of Pennsylvania and former Governor Arne Carlson of Minnesota established the Governor's Victory Bell on Sept. 4, 1993, the date of the first Minnesota-Penn State game. The contest, which took place at Beaver Stadium on the Penn State campus, not only marked the first game between the two teams, but also signified the inaugural Big Ten game for the Nittany Lions.

"As the Nittany Lions' initial conference opponent, Minnesota always will occupy a special place in Penn State football history, and we think it is appropriate to mark the occasion in this distinctive fashion," said Singel in 1993. "Governor Robert Casey was an early supporter of Penn State's move to the Big Ten Conference, and I know he looks forward to future conference games involving the Nittany Lions."

"Big Ten athletics has been a tremendously positive experience in the life of our state," said Carlson. "Minnesota's matchup against Penn State is a historic welcome to a school that will further enrich that experience for all of us. This trophy marks a very special occasion, and will allow us to remember it for years to come."

An artists' conception of the Governor's Victory Bell was presented by Singel and Carlson prior to the kickoff of that 1993 game, which Penn State won 38-20. The design of the trophy is a brass bell bearing the medallion of the Big Ten Conference, suspended from a wooden frame. At the top of the frame is a plaque which features the state seals of Minnesota and Pennsylvania, along with the following inscription:

Governor's Victory Bell
Presented annually to the winner of the Penn State-Minnesota football game Established September 4, 1993
Governor Robert Casey, Pennsylvania
Governor Arne Carlson, Minnesota

At the bottom of the base, the Minnesota and Penn State athletics logos appear, along with individual brass plates for inscription of the scores of the games between the two teams.

After a two year hiatus between 1995-96, the battle for the Governor's Victory Bell returned in 1997 when Penn State earned a hard-fought 16-15 victory at Beaver Stadium. The 1998 game returned to the Metrodome for only the second time in the short history of the Bell, where the Nittany Lions earned a 27-17 win. Minnesota took the Victory Bell home for the first time in 1999 when the Golden Gophers scored a 24-23 upset over the second-ranked Nittany Lions at Beaver Stadium. In 2000, the Golden Gophers were again victorious, winning 25-16 at the Metrodome.

The Victory Bell has stayed in Minneapolis for the last five years. The Nittany Lions and Golden Gophers didn't meet in 2001 and 2002 and when the series renewed in 2003, the Gophers earned the right to keep the Bell with a 20-14 win in Happy Valley.

The addition of the Governor's Victory Bell to the Golden Gophers' list of traditional trophy games means that Minnesota now has four active "trophy" rivalries on its schedule, more than any other college football program in the country.

The Gophers beat Penn State 16-7 at the Metrodome in 2004 to win the Victory Bell.

Pro Football Hall of Fame

The Pro Football Hall of Fame was officially opened on Sept. 7, 1963. Located in Canton, Ohio, the original two buildings that made up the Hall of Fame were 19,000-square-feet. Inducted that day were the first 17 members, including Minnesota's Bronko Nagurski. In May of 1971, the Hall of Fame became three buildings and 34,000 total square feet that featured more space for display areas, a movie theater, gift shop and research library. Visitor attendance reached 200,000 annually for the first time that year. Today, new displays and the Game Day Stadium showing the "100-yard Universe", an NFL Films production, adorn the Hall of Fame.

Currently, Minnesota has four former players that are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. A fifth former player, Carl Eller will be enshrined in 2004.

Nagurski is the only college player to be named a first team consensus All-American at two different positions before leading the Chicago Bears to three NFL Championships. He was inducted in 1963 as a charter member. Leo Nomellini was a three-time first team All-Big Ten player for Minnesota as well as a two-time All-American. He later went on to play for the San Francisco 49ers and played in every game of his professional career for 14 years. In 1970, he was named to the NFL's 25th anniversary team as one of the all-time great defensive tackles. He was inducted in 1969.

Bobby Bell was one of two Golden Gophers who brought the Outland Trophy to the U of M during his career. Bell won the award in 1962 before guiding the Kansas City Chiefs to two Super Bowls. Bell was inducted in 1983.

Bud Grant was an All-Big Ten end in 1948 and 1949 before he eventually became the head coach of the Minnesota Vikings. Grant coached the Vikings to 11 divisional titles and four Super Bowl appearances. He was enshrined in 1994.

Eller was a consensus All-American in 1963 and a three-time All-Big Ten selection during his U of M career. He went on to play 16 seasons in the NFL, 15 with the Minnesota Vikings. He was a five-time All-Pro and started at defensive end in four Super Bowls for the Vikings.

College Football Hall of Fame

A total of 16 former Golden Gopher players are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. They range from Edward L. Rogers, who scored the game-tying touchdown in the famous Little Brown Jug game against Michigan in 1903, to Bobby Bell, who brought the Outland Trophy to the University of Minnesota in 1962. George Franck in 2002 and Tom Brown in 2003 are the most recent University of Minnesota inductees.

South Bend, Indiana

In addition, three former Minnesota coaches, Bernie Bierman, Fritz Crisler and Henry Williams, have been inducted into the Hall as well.

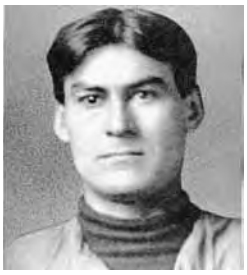

The Hall of Fame moved from Kings Island, Ohio, to its current home in South Bend, Ind. The South Bend Hall of Fame opened in the summer of 1995.

The first members of the College Football Hall of Fame were selected in 1951. Today, there are over 800 players and coaches in the Hall.

The Hall of Fame is a part of the National Football Foundation, which was conceived in 1947 by the late Grantland Rice. In addition to sponsoring the Hall of Fame, the Foundation has awarded more than $3 million in graduate school scholarships to college football players.

ROBERT BRUININKS

university president

Robert H. Bruininks was appointed the 15th president of the University of Minnesota on Nov. 8, 2002. He has served the University for 38 years, previously as professor, dean, and executive vice president and provost.

Positioning for the future

Bruininks is managing a major strategic positioning effort aimed at making the University one of the top three public research universities in the world within a decade.

"In many ways, we are already a leading research university, but the rapidly changing world of higher education requires that we not rest on our laurels and instead anticipate future needs and opportunities for education and research," Bruininks said. "If we do not become more intentional about priorities and directions, our ability to serve our students and Minnesota will suffer."

Bruininks' vision for the University includes continued improvements to the student experience, building on recent successes such as special programming for first-year students, new and newly renovated residence halls and classrooms, improved academic counseling, and streamlined registration and financial aid processes. These innovations have helped fuel increased student satisfaction rates, increased numbers of applicants for admissions and enrollment, and significantly improved graduation rates.

With more than 50,000 students enrolled in 2004-05, the University of Minnesota Twin Cities is the second largest campus in the nation. To maintain that level of access for students there and at the University's three coordinate campuses, Bruininks has made funding for scholarships his No. 1 private fundraising priority. That includes a major new scholarship program for low income students called the Founders Opportunity Scholarship.

"Students at the University have unparalleled opportunities from which to choose among, from laboratories on the cutting edge of science to study abroad experiences to the chance to serve their communities through service learning. I want to be sure they're able to choose the University of Minnesota," he said.

About President Bruininks

Initially joining the University's faculty as an assistant professor of educational psychology, Bruininks's career has centered on accountability, policy research and development, and strategic improvement in the fields of prekindergarten to grade 12 and higher education. As a researcher, he has authored or coauthored nearly 90 journal articles and more than 70 book chapters, as well as training materials and several nationally standardized tests.

Throughout his tenure at the University, he has founded and co-founded centers including the National Center on Educational Outcomes, the Rehabilitation Research and Training Center on Community Living, and the Institute on Community Integration.

Bruininks has been honored with numerous awards, including a Kellogg Foundation National Leadership Fellowship. He is president emeritus of the American Association on Mental Retardation, serves on the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board, and is a member of the Board of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

Bruininks and his wife, Dr. Susan Hagstrum, have three grown sons, two of whom played sports at the Division I level, one grandson and another on the way in late July.

athletics director

In just three years as Director of Athletics at the University of Minnesota, Joel Maturi has developed the Golden Gopher athletic department into one of the elite programs in the country while maintaining a vision for a bright future. This past year, Maturi was instrumental in getting Gopher football one step closer to returning to campus when Twin Cities Federal (TCF) agreed to a $35 million corporate sponsorship, the largest corporate sponsorship of its kind involving college football.

"Gopher athletics is a window to our great university and we are fortunate that TCF realized the importance of what we are trying to accomplish," Maturi said. "Bringing football Saturday's back to campus will not only reward our football program, but the students, alumni, fans and anyone else associated with the event."

Maturi has led a department that has produced 412 Big Ten All-Academic selections the past two years, the highest two-year total in the history of athletics at Minnesota. Over 50 percent of Gopher student-athletes maintain a grade point average of 3.0 or higher. Since Maturi's arrival, more than 20 Gopher student-athletes have earned Academic All-America honors.

During the 2004-05 academic year, the Gophers climbed to sixth-place in the NACDA Director's Cup standings following the winter sports season, the highest ranking ever for Minnesota in the competition. The Director's Cup recognizes overall athletic excellence by awarding points for NCAA competition in 10 men's and 10 women's sports. Eight Gopher teams advanced to NCAA post-season competition; with six teams ending the year with top 20 national finishes.

Among the highlights from the past year was the football program's accomplishment of earning its third consecutive bowl win for the first time in school history with a 20-16 victory over Alabama in the Music City Bowl. The Gopher women's hockey team won its second consecutive NCAA championship by defeating Harvard, 4-3, while the men's hockey team reached its third NCAA Frozen Four in the past four seasons. The Gopher women's volleyball team advanced to its second consecutive "Final Four" and reached the national championship game for the first time in school history.

After a six-year absence from the NCAA Tournament, the men's basketball team returned to the NCAA tournament, while the women's basketball team reached its third consecutive Sweet 16. Two other Gopher teams finished the season in the top 20 with men's swimming & diving earning an 11th-place finish and men's cross country had an 18th-place showing at the NCAA Championships.

"Everyone associated with Golden Gopher athletics should be proud of our accomplishments this past year," Maturi said. "The student-athletes, coaches, campus community and people of Minnesota all had a hand in our success. It is a credit to the quality student-athletes we have at Minnesota when you are able to combine academic accomplishments with athletic success."

Maturi increased his leadership role within the Big Ten and NCAA during the past couple of years by being named to several prominent committees, most notably the NCAA Division I Management Council. He will serve as the Management Council's liaison to the NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Maturi is also a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Ice Hockey Committee.

Maturi was named the Director of Athletics at the U of M on July 12, 2002. The University's Board of Regents unanimously voted to name him the first Athletics Director of a combined athletics department. Maturi, a native of Chisholm, Minn., came to the U of M from Miami University (Ohio). He was the Director of Athletics at Miami since 1998.

At Miami, Maturi was responsible for the management and leadership of 19 sports programs; all support staffs and nearly 600 student-athletes. His first season at Miami was an extremely successful one. The synchronized skating team won a national championship, the men's basketball team reached the NCAA Sweet 16, the volleyball team earned its first NCAA Tournament win, the men's cross country team advanced to the NCAA meet and the football team won 10 games against an impressive schedule. That year, six teams won Mid-American Conference titles while five coaches garnered Coach of the Year honors. The men's program captured the school's 20th Reese Trophy, an award that measures overall success of men's teams in the MAC.

During his tenure at Miami, Maturi spearheaded fund-raising efforts for two important and necessary projects. In his final year, the Walter L. Gross Jr. Family Student-Athlete Development Center was opened and a new baseball field, McKie Field at Hayden Park, was dedicated.

Prior to Miami, Maturi served as the Director of Athletics at the University of Denver from 1996-98. At Denver, Maturi led the school's move from Division II to Division I and oversaw the search for Division I conference affiliation. Maturi also assisted in the planning and the development of a $50 million Sports and Wellness Center and a $2.1 million tennis complex.

Maturi is no stranger to the Big Ten. From 1987-96, he worked at the University of Wisconsin. While there, he assisted in taking the financially challenged and struggling athletics program to profitability and unparalleled success. From 1992-96, he was the Associate Director of Athletics with direct responsibility for all aspects of the football, ice hockey, wrestling, softball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's rowing, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and the office of academic affairs. Maturi was named the Wisconsin Sports Person of the Year in 1993.

Before entering the college ranks, Maturi spent 19 years as a high school coach and administrator at Madison Edgewood High School. He coached football, basketball, baseball and track and field, leading his teams to 10 state tournaments. Maturi was inducted into the Wisconsin Basketball Hall of Fame in 1992.

Maturi received a B.A. in government from the University of Notre Dame in 1967. He also served on the support staff of Ara Parseghian's first national championship team. He earned a master's degree and certification for educational administration from the University of Wisconsin - Platteville in 1985.

Maturi and his wife, Lois, have three children, Mark (29), Katie (28) and Anne (25).

WCCO Radio

WCCO-AM 830 will serve as the flagship station for the Golden Gopher Radio Network again this season. In July 2001, University of Minnesota Athletics announced a five-year agreement for the broadcast rights for Golden Gopher Football and Basketball. The deal extended a long-term relationship between the two parties. WCCO has been broadcasting Golden Gopher Football every year since 1923 and Golden Gopher Basketball since the 1930s. WCCO is also in its third year as the radio home for the 2002 and 2003 national champion Golden Gopher Hockey program. The station is also celebrating its 80th anniversary in 2004.

WCCO Radio team of Darrell Thompson, Dave Lee and Dave Mona.

Calling the action for the fifth straight season is Dave Lee. Lee, who also serves as the play-by-play announcer for Golden Gopher Basketball home games, is the co-host of the popular WCCO Morning Show. A five-time winner of the state Associated Press play-by-play award, including his call of the 2003 Sun Bowl victory over Oregon, Lee served as the public address announcer for Golden Gopher football for three years prior to stepping in the radio booth. Last year, Lee received the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Award as Minnesota's Sportscaster of the Year and was also recognized by the Northwest Broadcast News Association with an Eric Savereid Award for his broadcasts.

Dave Mona and Darrell Thompson will provide analysis. Mona is the chairman of Weber Shandwick Worldwide Minneapolis, a public relations firm. He is also a radio personality on WCCO, co-hosting the popular show "Sports Huddle" with Sid Hartman on Sunday mornings. Thompson, the all-time leading rusher in Golden Gopher history, also spent five years with the Green Bay Packers in the NFL. Thompson is currently the program manager for the Minneapolis Jaycees Charitable Foundation.

WCCO also provides extended pre-game and post-game coverage of Golden Gopher Football. The pre-game show will start a minimum of an hour prior to kickoff and the post-game show will also run at least an hour in length.

CREDENTIALS
Requests for working media credentials for 2005 Minnesota home games at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome must be made online at gophersports.com. Please contact the Athletic Communications Office for more information. Credentials may be picked up at the Athletic Communications Office in the Bierman Building on Friday prior to the game, or on Saturday at the media will call area located at Gate D on the southeast side of the Metrodome. Credentials will be mailed at least one week prior to the game to the visiting SID for distribution to visiting media. Working media must enter the Metrodome at Gate D.

CREDENTIALS POLICY
Media credentials are issued on a priority basis with television/radio stations originating a live broadcast, daily newspapers, national publications and television/radio stations who are covering for a nightly news receiving top priority. Web sites must be directly affiliated with an accredited media agency and will be evaluated on a game-by-game basis prior to receiving credentials. Freelance reporters and photographers must be on assignment and all credential requests must come through originating agency. Spouses, children and friends are not allowed in the press box. The University of Minnesota reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual who is not affiliated with an official news gathering organization.

GOPHERSPORTS.COM
All Golden Gopher football information, including rosters, notes and weekly releases are posted on www.gophersports.com, the official web site of the Golden Gopher Athletics.

E-MAIL SERVICES
Press releases, game notes and advisories are e-mailed to members of the media who cover the Gophers on a regular basis. Media wishing to be added to the list should contact Shane Sandersfeld.

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTS
Professional scouts should contact Lonie Dorholt in the Athletics Ticket Office at 612-624-8328 to purchase tickets for scouting purposes. Big Ten Conference policy does not permit professional scouts to be credentialed.

MEDIA PARKING
Media parking is available in the Metrodome lot on the southeast side of the Metrodome and in the two adjacent lots on the north side of the Metrodome at 300 and 309 Norm McGrew Place. Parking is limited and available at a cost of $120 for the entire season (six games). Requests must be made through the Athletic Communications Office.

RADIO/TELEVISION
Minnesota's live television appearances are designated in accordance with Big Ten contractual agreements and guidelines. Radio booths are assigned for WCCO-AM (830) and the opponent's flagship network. Booth assignments for additional opponent radio stations doing live broadcasts will be made on a space-available basis, with preference determined by the opponents' sports information offices.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
All photographers must present their media credentials at the media entrance outside Gate D prior to the game in order to receive a photographer's armband. Only photographers wearing those designated photo armbands will be permitted on the sidelines. All photographers wishing to shoot from the sidelines are asked to report to the baseball press box and gain access to the playing field through that entrance. In accordance with NCAA and Big Ten rules, photographers are not permitted to shoot within the 25-yard lines (bench area) and must at all times stay behind the 12-foot restraining line that surrounds the field. Requests for photo assistance should be directed to Jerry Lee, while all requests for assistance with film and video should be directed to Mike Schaaf, director of video services.

TELEPHONE LINES
There are two courtesy telephone lines available in the back row of the football press box for media use on a first-come, first-serve basis. Media who wish to have their own phone line installed should contact Qwest directly at (612) 399-7961.

PRESS BOX SERVICES
Pregame notes, flip cards, stats and programs are available to the media in the football and baseball press boxes prior to the game. Quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play and post-game coaches quotes and notes will also be provided. A pregame meal will be served in both press boxes and cookies and fruit will be available at halftime. Tickets for the pregame meal are provided on the media credential and are required at the time of service for those who wish to eat. Beverages are available prior to, during and after the game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
Minnesota complies with an equal access policy. Following a 10-minute cooling off period and then his WCCO postgame radio show, Coach Glen Mason and selected Minnesota players are available to the media in the interview room located on the lower level of the Metrodome. The visiting coach is available in the visiting team interview area which is located on the lower level of the Metrodome, just outside the visiting team locker room.

MEDIA LUNCHEONS
Coach Mason hosts a weekly media luncheon starting at noon each Tuesday throughout the season in the Gibson-Nagurski Complex. Coach Mason will address the media at 1 p.m. Selected student-athletes will also be available following Coach Mason's media conference, class schedule permitting. Media representatives covering the Golden Gophers on a regular basis are invited. For those unable to attend, Coach Mason's comments will be available online at www.gophersports.com.

COACH MASON/PLAYER INTERVIEWS
In addition to his weekly luncheon, Coach Mason is available to the media each Tuesday at 12:40 p.m. CST, on the Big Ten teleconference call. Call the Athletic Communications Office for the phone number to access the teleconference. Media unable to utilize these arrangements should contact the Athletic Communications Office.

In addition to Tuesday's luncheon, player interviews may be conducted Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday, either before the pre-practice position meetings or after the conclusion of practice, following a 10-minute cooling off period. All phone interviews for out-of-town media will be conducted Monday through Wednesday through the Athletic Communications Office. Home phone numbers for players and coaches will not be released, and they have been instructed not to conduct interviews if contacted without prior approval of the Athletic Communications Office.

All interviews must not conflict with classes, meetings, training room treatments or other team obligations. The locker room and training room are closed to the media at all times. Requests for player and/or coach interviews, either in person or via the phone, will be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office. Please allow 24 hours in order to facilitate arrangements.

PRACTICE INFORMATION
The Golden Gopher football team practices on Sunday and Tuesday through Friday at the Gibson-Nagurski Football Complex and Rod Wallace Field, located at 15th Ave. SE and 8th St. All practices are closed to the general public. The first 20 minutes of Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday's practice are open to the media. Photographers can shoot B-Roll or still shots during this time. Please contact the Athletic Communications Office for practice times.

Television interviews with Coach Mason will be conducted on a request basis only through the Athletic Communications Office. These interviews will be conducted in the 20 minutes prior to the start of practice and must be requested 24 hours in advance.

All print interviews with players or coaches will be conducted in the Hall of Traditions at the Gibson-Nagurski Football Complex following the completion of practice. All limitations on, or alterations of these procedures for practice will be determined in advance by Head Coach Glen Mason through the Athletic Communications Office.

PHOTOGRAPH REQUESTS
All requests for digital photographs of players and coaches, logos or other multimedia items must be made to Jeff Keiser in the Athletic Communications office. He can be reached at keise004@umn.edu or at (612) 626-1097.
